1 Any discovery subject to protective order. Upon a showing of good 1. 2 cause by either party, the court may at any time order that discovery or 3 inspection of any kind of material or information under this article be 4 denied, restricted, conditioned or deferred, or make such other order as 5 is appropriate. The court may impose as a condition on discovery to a б defendant that the material or information to be discovered be available 7 only to counsel for the defendant; or, alternatively, that counsel for 8 the defendant, and persons employed by the attorney or appointed by the 9 court to assist in the preparation of a defendant's case, may not 10 disclose physical copies of the discoverable documents to a defendant or 11 to anyone else, provided that the prosecution affords the defendant access to inspect redacted copies of the discoverable documents at a 12 13 supervised location that provides regular and reasonable hours for such 14 access, such as a prosecutor's office, police station, facility of detention, or court. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing a 15 16 protective order under this section, or another affected person, to submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or in camera. Any such 17 papers and a transcript of such testimony may be sealed and shall 18 19 constitute a part of the record on appeal. This section does not alter 20 the allocation of the burden of proof with regard to matters at issue, 21 including privilege. 22 2. Modification of time periods for discovery. Upon motion of a party 23 in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discovery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause. 24 25 3. Showing of good cause. Good cause under this section may include 26 constitutional rights or limitations; danger to the integrity of phys-27 ical evidence; a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to 28 29 any person; a substantial risk of an adverse effect upon the legitimate 30 needs of law enforcement, including the protection of the confidentiali-31 ty of informants; danger to any person stemming from factors such as a 32 defendant's gang affiliation, prior history of interfering with 33 witnesses, or threats or intimidating actions directed at potential witnesses; or other similar factors that also outweigh the usefulness of 34 35 the discovery. 36 4. Successor counsel or pro se defendant. In cases in which the attor-37 ney-client relationship is terminated prior to trial for any reason, any 38 material or information disclosed subject to a condition that it be available only to counsel for the defendant, or limited in dissemination 39 by protective order or otherwise, shall be provided only to successor 40 counsel for the defendant under the same condition or be returned to the 41 42 prosecution, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown or 43 the prosecutor gives written consent. Any work product derived from such 44 material or information shall not be provided to the defendant, unless 45 the court rules otherwise or the prosecutor gives written consent. If 46 the defendant is acting as his or her own attorney, the court may regu-47 late the time, place and manner of access to any discoverable material 48 or information; and it may as appropriate appoint persons to assist the defendant in the investigation or preparation of the case. Upon motion 49 or application of a defendant acting as his or her own attorney, the 50 51 court may at any time modify or vacate any condition or restriction 52 relating to access to discoverable material or information, for good 53 cause shown. 54 5. Expedited review of adverse ruling. (a) A party that has unsuccess-55 fully sought, or unsuccessfully opposed the granting of, a protective 56 order under this section relating to the name, address, contact informa-

1	tion or statements of a person may obtain expedited review of that
2	ruling by an individual justice of the intermediate appellate court to which an appeal from a judgment of conviction in the case would be 4	taken.
5	(b) Such review shall be sought within two business days of the 6	adverse or partially adverse ruling, by order to show cause filed with 7	the intermediate appellate court. The order to show cause shall in addi-
8	tion be timely served on the lower court and on the opposing party, and 9	shall be accompanied by a sworn affirmation stating in good faith (i)
10	that the ruling affects substantial interests, and (ii) that diligent
11	efforts to reach an accommodation of the underlying discovery dispute
12	with opposing counsel failed or that no accommodation was feasible;
13	except that service on the opposing party, and a statement regarding 14	efforts to reach an accommodation, are unnecessary where the opposing 15	party was not made aware of the application for a protective order and 16	good cause exists for omitting service of the order to show cause on the 17	opposing party. The lower court's order subject to review shall be 18	stayed until the appellate justice renders decision.
19	(c) The assignment of the individual appellate justice, and the mode
20	of and procedure for the review, are determined by rules of the individ-
21	ual appellate courts. The appellate justice may consider any relevant
22	and reliable information bearing on the issue, and may dispense with 23	written briefs other than supporting and opposing materials previously
24	submitted to the lower court. The appellate justice may dispense with 25	the issuance of a written opinion in rendering his or her decision, and 26	when practicable shall render decision expeditiously. Such review and 27	decision shall not affect the right of a defendant, in a subsequent
28	appeal from a judgment of conviction, to claim as error the ruling
29	reviewed.
30	6. Compliance with protective order. Any protective order issued under 31	this article is a mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of 32	criminal contempt in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal 33	law.
34	§ 245.20 Phase one discovery obligation of prosecution.
35	1. Timing of phase one discovery for the defendant. The prosecution
36	shall perform its phase one discovery obligations under this section
37	within fifteen calendar days after the defendant's arraignment on an
38	indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, infor-
39	mation, or simplified information. Portions of materials claimed to be 40	non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of 41	the court under section 245.10 of this article; but the defendant shall 42	be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a
43	particular subsection, and the discoverable portions of such materials
44	shall be disclosed if practicable. When the discoverable materials are 45	exceptionally voluminous, the time period in this subdivision may be 46	stayed by up to an additional forty-five calendar days without need for 47	a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article.
48	When the prosecutor is engaged in an ongoing trial or does not report to 49	work due to a vacation or similar reason during one or more days of the 49 50	time period in this subdivision, that time period may be stayed by an 50 51	additional seven calendar days without need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article.
52 52
53	2. Phase one discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall 54	disclose to the defendant as part of phase one discovery, and permit the

55 defendant to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, each of the follow-

1	ing items and information when it relates to the subject matter of the 2	case:
3	(a) All electronically stored police reports and law enforcement agen-
4	cy reports that are in the possession, custody or control of the prose-
5	cution, or persons under the prosecution's direction and control.
б	(b) All written or recorded statements, and the substance of all oral
7	statements, made by the defendant or a co-defendant to a public servant
8	engaged in law enforcement activity or to a person then acting under his
9	or her direction or in cooperation with him or her, other than state-
10	ments made in the course of the criminal transaction.
11	(c) A list of all tangible objects obtained from, or allegedly
12	possessed by, the defendant or a co-defendant. The list shall include a 13	designation by the prosecutor as to which objects were physically or 14	constructively possessed by the defendant and were recovered during a 15	search or seizure by a public servant or an agent thereof, and which 16	tangible objects were recovered by a public servant or an agent thereof
17	after allegedly being abandoned by the defendant. If the prosecution
18	intends to prove the defendant's possession of any tangible objects by 19	means of a statutory presumption of possession, it shall designate that 20	intention as to each such object. If reasonably practicable, it shall
21	also designate the location from which each tangible object was recov-
22	ered.
23	(d) The names of, and addresses or adequate alternative contact infor-
24	mation for, all persons other than law enforcement personnel whom the 25	prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to any offense
26	charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a designation by 27	the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called as witnesses.
28	Information under this subsection relating to any person may be with-
29	held, and redacted from discovery materials, as provided in subdivision
30	three or four of this section. Information under this subsection relat-
31	ing to a confidential informant may be withheld, and redacted from
32	discovery materials, without need for a motion pursuant to section
33	245.10 of this article; but the defendant shall be notified in writing
34	that such information has not been disclosed, unless the court rules
35	otherwise for good cause shown.
36	(e) The name and work affiliation of all law enforcement personnel
37	whom the prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to 38	any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto. Information under 39	this subsection relating to undercover personnel may be withheld, and 40	redacted from discovery materials, without need for a motion pursuant to 41	section 245.10 of this article; but the defendant shall be notified in
42	writing that such information has not been disclosed, unless the court
43	rules otherwise for good cause shown.
44 45	(f) When written and recorded statements are in the possession of the prosecution (not solely in the possession of police or another law
45 46	enforcement agency), all statements, written or recorded or summarized
46	in any writing or recording, made by persons who have evidence or infor-
47 48	mation relevant to any offense charged or to a potential defense there-
49	to. Statements solely in the possession of police or another law enforcement agency at the time of phase one discovery are discoverable
50 51	under paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section 245.30 of this arti-
51 52	cle.
52 53	(g) When it is known to the prosecution (not solely known to police or 53 54	another law enforcement agency), all evidence and information, whether
55	or not admissible or recorded in tangible form, that tends to (i) excul-
56	pate the defendant; (ii) mitigate the defendant's culpability as to a Fact and accomments, (II, mittigate and accomments b cathabitity ab to a charged offense; (iii) support a potential defense to a charged offense; 1 2 (iv) provide a basis for a motion to suppress evidence on constitutional 3 grounds; (v) significantly impugn the credibility of an important prose-4 cution witness, informant or evidence; or (vi) mitigate punishment. 5 Favorable evidence and information known solely to police or another law б enforcement agency at the time of phase one discovery is discoverable under paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section 245.30 of this arti-7 8 cle. The prosecution shall disclose evidence or information under this 9 subsection expeditiously upon its receipt by the prosecutor, notwithstanding the otherwise-applicable time periods for disclosure in this 10 11 article. (h) Whether a search warrant has been executed and all documents 12 relating thereto, including but not limited to the warrant, the warrant 13 14 application, supporting affidavits, a police inventory of all property seized under the warrant, and a transcript of all testimony or other 15 16 oral communications offered in support of the warrant application. 17 (i) The approximate date, time and place of the offense or offenses charged and of the defendant's arrest. 18 19 3. Prosecutor's option to restrict disclosure of contact information 20 by arranging witness interview. Within the prosecutor's discretion, the 21 address, telephone number or similar contact information for any person whose name is disclosed pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of 22 this section may be withheld, and redacted from other discovery materi-23 als, without need for a motion pursuant to section 245.10 of this arti-24 25 cle, if the prosecutor makes the person available to counsel for the 26 defendant for an in-person interview within the time period specified in 27 subdivision one of this section. In lieu of an in-person interview, a telephone interview may be used where arranging an in-person interview 28 29 is not reasonably practicable or the person declines to participate in 30 an in-person interview; but law enforcement personnel shall not express-31 ly or implicitly encourage a person to decline to participate in an in-person interview. This subdivision does not create any right for the 32 33 defendant personally to attend or to participate in such an interview. 34 The prosecution shall provide counsel for the defendant with the other 35 materials discoverable under subdivision two of this section prior to 36 such an interview. 37 4. Prosecutor's option to restrict disclosure of contact information 38 in violent felony cases. (a) Where the defendant is charged with a violent felony offense, within the prosecutor's discretion the address, 39 telephone number or similar contact information for any person whose 40 41 name is disclosed pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of this 42 section may be withheld, and redacted from other discovery materials, 43 without need for a motion pursuant to section 245.10 of this article; except that a list of the addresses or adequate alternative contact 44 45 information for persons whose information has been withheld or redacted 46 shall be separately provided to counsel for the defendant in a document clearly marked as confidential, unless a protective order pursuant to 47 section 245.10 of this article is issued by the court for good cause 48 shown. In addition discovery of this information may be conditioned on 49 the defendant's personal consent, given in open court in the presence of 50 51 the court at arraignment or at another time, to the use of the confiden-52 tiality procedure set forth in this subdivision. The court shall specif-53 ically caution the defendant, in the colloquy about use of this proce-54 dure, concerning the offenses of tampering with a witness and intimidating a victim or witness in article two hundred fifteen of the 55 56 penal law. Nothing in this subdivision precludes the court from issuing

1	a different protective order pursuant to section 245.10 of this article
2	for good cause shown.
3	(b) When the confidentiality procedure set forth in this subdivision
4	is used, the following requirements apply:
5	(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, counsel
6	for the defendant may not disclose or permit to be disclosed to a 7	defendant or to anyone else the list described in this subdivision or 8	its contents, unless specifically permitted to do so by the court for 9	good cause shown or unless the prosecutor gives written consent. The 10	court may allow a party seeking or opposing such permission, or another
11	affected person, to submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or 12	in camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such testimony may be
13	sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on appeal. The obli-
14	gation to maintain confidentiality described in this subdivision is a 15	mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of criminal contempt in 16	subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal law.
17	(ii) Notwithstanding subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, counsel for 18	the defendant may disclose or permit to be disclosed the listed contact
19	information for a potential witness to persons employed by the attorney
20	or to persons appointed by the court to assist in the investigation or 21	preparation of a defendant's case if that disclosure is required for 22	that investigation or preparation. Persons provided this information by
23	the attorney shall be informed by the attorney that further dissem-
24 25	ination of the information, except as provided by this subdivision, is prohibited. Within the prosecutor's discretion, discovery of the listed
25 26	contact information may be conditioned on service of a written statement
20 27	by counsel for the defendant of the names of any employees who may be 28	provided information pursuant to this subsection, and describing any 29	known prior connections between those employees and all defendants in 30	the case.

the court under section 245.10 of this article; but the defendant shall 1 be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a 2 3 particular subsection, and the discoverable portions of such materials 4 shall be disclosed if practicable. When the discoverable materials are 5 exceptionally voluminous, the time period in this subdivision may be б stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article. 7 8 2. Phase two discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall 9 disclose to the defendant as part of phase two discovery, and permit the 10 defendant to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, each of the follow-11 ing items and information when it relates to the subject matter of the case and is in the possession, custody or control of the prosecution or 12 13 persons under the prosecution's direction or control: 14 (a) All transcripts of the testimony of a person who has testified before a grand jury, including but not limited to the defendant or a 15 16 co-defendant. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and due to the 17 limited availability of transcription resources, a transcript is unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in subdivi-18 19 sion one of this section, that period may be stayed by up to an addi-20 tional forty-five calendar days without need for a motion pursuant to 21 section 245.10 of this article; except that the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than thirty calendar days before a 22 scheduled trial date, unless an order is obtained pursuant to section 23 24 245.10 of this article. When the court is required to review grand jury transcripts, the prosecution shall disclose them to the court expe-25 26 ditiously upon their receipt by the prosecutor, notwithstanding the 27 otherwise-applicable time periods for disclosure in this article. 28 (b) All police reports and law enforcement agency reports, including those not electronically stored. Reports previously disclosed pursuant 29 30 to paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section 245.20 of this article 31 need not be disclosed again. 32 (c) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing 33 or recording, made by persons who have evidence or information relevant to any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including 34 those that were solely in the possession of police or another law 35 enforcement agency at the time of phase one discovery. Statements 36 37 previously disclosed pursuant to paragraph (f) of subdivision two of 38 section 245.20 of this article need not be disclosed again. (d) All evidence and information, including that which was solely 39 known to police or other law enforcement agencies at the time of phase 40 one discovery, and whether or not it is admissible or recorded in tangi-41 42 ble form, that tends to (i) exculpate the defendant; (ii) mitigate the 43 defendant's culpability as to a charged offense; (iii) support a potential defense to a charged offense; (iv) provide a basis for a motion to 44 45 suppress evidence on constitutional grounds; (v) impugn the credibility 46 of a prosecution witness, informant or evidence; or (vi) mitigate 47 punishment. Evidence or information previously disclosed pursuant to paragraph (g) of subdivision two of section 245.20 of this article need 48 49 not be disclosed again. The prosecution shall disclose evidence or information under this subsection expeditiously upon its receipt by the 50 51 prosecutor, notwithstanding the otherwise-applicable time periods for 52 disclosure in this article. 53 (e) A summary of all promises, rewards and inducements made to persons 54 who may be called as witnesses, as well as requests for consideration by persons who may be called as witnesses, and copies of all documents 55 56 relevant to a promise, reward or inducement.

1 (f) All tangible property that the prosecution intends to introduce in its case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing. Discovery of items 2 3 under this subsection may be conditioned on service of a demand to 4 produce made by the defendant, if in phase one discovery the prosecution 5 timely served notice on the defendant that a demand to produce items б under this subsection would have to be served on the prosecution within 7 thirty days of that notice. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence 8 the prosecutor has not formed an intention within the time period speci-9 fied in this section that an item under this subsection will be intro-10 duced at trial or a pre-trial hearing, that period shall be stayed with-11 out need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article; but the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable 12 13 and subject to the continuing duty to disclose in section 245.75 of this 14 article. (q) All tapes or other electronic recordings which the prosecution 15 16 intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing. 17 (h) All photographs and drawings made or completed by a public servant engaged in law enforcement activity, or which were made by a person whom 18 the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial 19 20 hearing, or which the prosecution intends to introduce at trial or a 21 pre-trial hearing. 22 (i) All photographs, photocopies and reproductions made by or at the direction of law enforcement personnel of any property prior to its 23 release pursuant to section 450.10 of the penal law. 24 25 (j) All reports and documents concerning physical or mental examina-26 tions, or scientific tests or experiments or comparisons, relating to 27 the criminal action or proceeding which were made by or at the request or direction of a public servant engaged in law enforcement activity, or 28 29 which were made by a person whom the prosecutor intends to call as a 30 witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which the prosecution 31 intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing. 32 (k) Expert opinion evidence, including the name, business address, 33 current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each expert witness whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a 34 35 pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the 36 facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a 37 38 summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter 39 or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence 40 this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time period 41 42 specified in subdivision one of this section, that period shall be 43 stayed without need for a motion pursuant to section 245.10 of this 44 article; except that the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable 45 and not later than sixty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, 46 unless an order is obtained pursuant to section 245.10 of this article. 47 When the prosecution's expert witness is being called in response to disclosure of an expert witness by the defendant, the court shall alter 48 a scheduled trial date, if necessary, to allow the prosecution thirty 49 calendar days to make the disclosure and the defendant thirty calendar 50 51 days to prepare and respond to the new materials. (1) The results of complete criminal history record checks for all 52 53 defendants and all persons designated as potential prosecution witnesses 54 pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section 245.20 of this article, other than those witnesses who are experts or law enforcement 55 56 officers.

(o) In any prosecution alleging a violation of sections 156.05 or 13 14 156.10 of the penal law, the time, place and manner such violation 15 occurred. 16 § 245.40 Reciprocal discovery obligation of the defendant. 17 1. Timing of reciprocal discovery for the prosecution. The defendant shall perform his or her reciprocal discovery obligations under this 18 19 section within thirty calendar days after being served with the prose-20 cution's certificate of compliance pursuant to subdivision one of 21 section 245.65 of this article. Portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of 22 the court under section 245.10 of this article; but the prosecution 23 shall be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed 24 under a particular subsection, and the discoverable portions of such 25 26 materials shall be disclosed if practicable. 27 2. Reciprocal discovery for the prosecution. The defendant shall, subject to constitutional limitations, disclose to the prosecution, and 28 29 permit the prosecution to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, each of 30 the following items and information when it is within the defendant's or 31 counsel for the defendant's possession or control: 32 (a) The names, known aliases, addresses and birth dates of all persons 33 other than the defendant whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial or a pre-trial hearing. Disclosure of this information for a 34 35 person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after 36 37 the prosecution witness has testified. 38 (b) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, made by all persons other than the defendant whom the 39 defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial or a pre-trial hearing; 40 except that disclosure of such statements made by a person whom the 41 42 defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after the prosecution 43 44 witness has testified. 45 (c) A summary of all promises, rewards and inducements made to persons 46 whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial or a pre-trial 47 hearing, as well as requests for consideration by such persons, and 48 copies of all documents relevant to a promise, reward or inducement. (d) All tangible property, including but not limited to tapes or other 49 electronic recordings and photographs and drawings, that the defendant 50 51 intends to introduce in the defendant's case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence counsel 52 for the defendant has not formed an intention within the time period 53 54 specified in this section that an item under this subsection will be introduced at trial or a pre-trial hearing, that period shall be stayed 55

3	article.
4	(e) All reports and documents concerning physical or mental examina-
5	tions, or scientific tests or experiments or comparisons, which the б	defendant intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which 7	were made by a person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at

9	(f) Intended expert opinion evidence, including the name, business
10	address, current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each
11	expert witness whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at trial
12	or a pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that 13	pertain to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of 14	the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a
15	summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter
16	or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in 17	section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence
18	this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time period
19	specified in subdivision one of this section, that period shall be 20	stayed without need for a motion pursuant to section 245.10 of this
21	article; except that the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable
22	and not later than thirty calendar days before a scheduled trial date,
23	unless an order is obtained pursuant to section 245.10 of this article.
24	§ 245.45 Disclosure of prior misconduct or criminal acts.
25	1. Use at trial. Not later than fifteen calendar days before a sched-
26	uled trial date, the prosecution shall disclose to the defendant a list 27	of all misconduct and criminal acts of the defendant not charged in the
28	indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, infor-
29	mation, or simplified information, which the prosecution intends to use
30	at trial for purposes of:
31	(a) Impeaching the credibility of the defendant; or 32	(b) As substantive proof of any material issue in the case.
33	2. Notification for what purpose. In addition the prosecution shall
34	designate whether it intends to use each listed act for impeachment
35	and/or as substantive proof.
36	§ 245.50 Non-testimonial evidence from the defendant.
37	1. Availability. After the filing of an accusatory instrument, and 38	subject to constitutional limitations, the court may, upon motion of the 39	prosecution showing probable cause to believe the defendant has commit-40	ted the crime, a clear indication that relevant material evidence will be found, and that the method used to secure it is safe and reliable, 41
42	require a defendant to provide non-testimonial evidence, including to:
43	(a) Appear in a lineup;
44	(b) Speak for identification by a witness or potential witness;
45	(c) Be fingerprinted;
46	(d) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;
47	(e) Permit the taking of samples of the defendant's blood, hair, and 48	other materials of the defendant's body that involves no unreasonable
49	intrusion thereof;
50	(f) Provide specimens of the defendant's handwriting; and
51	(q) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of the 52	defendant's body.
53	2. Limitations. This section shall not be construed to alter or in any
54	way affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized
55	by law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument, consistent with
56	such rights as the defendant may derive from the state constitution or the United States constitution. This section shall not be construed to 1 alter or in any way affect the administration of a chemical test where 2 3 otherwise authorized. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, 4 limited or conditioned as provided in section 245.10 of this article. 5 § 245.55 Court orders for preservation, access, discovery or DNA comparб ison. 7 1. Order to preserve evidence. At any time, a party may move for a 8 court order to any individual, agency or other entity in possession, 9 custody or control of items which relate to the subject matter of the 10 case or are otherwise relevant, requiring that such items be preserved 11 for a specified period of time. The court shall hear and rule upon such motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order upon 12 13 a showing that preservation of particular evidence will create signif-14 icant hardship, on condition that the probative value of that evidence 15 is preserved by a specified alternative means. 16 2. Order to grant access to premises. At any time, the defendant may 17 move for a court order to any individual, agency or other entity in possession, custody or control of a crime scene or other premises that 18 19 relates to the subject matter of the case or is otherwise relevant, 20 requiring that counsel for the defendant be granted prompt and reason-21 able access to inspect, photograph or measure that crime scene or those 22 premises, and that the condition of the crime scene or premises remain unchanged in the interim. The court shall hear and rule upon such 23 24 motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order upon 25 a showing that granting access to a particular crime scene or premises 26 will create significant hardship, on condition that the probative value 27 of that location is preserved by a specified alternative means. 28 3. Discretionary discovery by order of the court. The court in its 29 discretion may, upon a showing by the defendant that the request is 30 reasonable and that the defendant is unable without undue hardship to 31 obtain the substantial equivalent by other means, order the prosecution, 32 or any individual, agency or other entity subject to the jurisdiction of the court, to make available for disclosure to the defendant any materi-33 al or information which potentially relates to the subject matter of the 34 35 case and is reasonably likely to be material. A motion under this subdi-36 vision must be on notice to any person or entity affected by the order. 37 The court may, upon request of any person or entity affected by the 38 order, modify or vacate the order if compliance would be unreasonable or will create significant hardship. The court may permit a party seeking 39 40 or opposing a discretionary order of discovery under this subdivision, or another affected person or entity, to submit papers or testify on the 41 42 record ex parte or in camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such 43 testimony may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on 44 appeal. 45 comparison order. Where property in the prosecution's 4. DNA 46 possession, custody, or control consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid 47 ("DNA") profile obtained from probative biological material gathered in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant, and 48 the defendant establishes (a) that such profile complies with federal 49 bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are applicable 50 51 and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and (b) that the data meets 52 53 state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria as such 54 criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may--upon motion of a defendant 55 56 against whom an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information is pending--order an 1 2 entity that has access to the combined DNA index system or its successor 3 system to compare such DNA profile against DNA databanks by keyboard 4 searches, or a similar method that does not involve uploading, upon 5 notice to both parties and the entity required to perform the search, б upon a showing by the defendant that such a comparison is material to 7 the presentation of his or her defense and that the request is reason-8 able. For purposes of this paragraph, a "keyboard search" shall mean a 9 search of a DNA profile against the databank in which the profile that 10 is searched is not uploaded to or maintained in the databank. 11 § 245.60 Diligent effort to ascertain existence of material and informa-12 tion. The prosecutor shall make a diligent, good faith effort to ascertain 13 14 the existence of material or information discoverable under sections 245.20 or 245.30 of this article and to cause such material or informa-15 16 tion to be made available for discovery where it exists but is not with-17 in the prosecutor's possession, custody or control; provided that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by subpoena duces tecum mate-18 19 rial or information which the defendant may thereby obtain. This 20 provision shall not require the prosecutor to ascertain the existence of 21 witnesses not known to police or another law enforcement agency, or the written or recorded statements thereof, under paragraph (d) of section 22 245.20 and paragraph (c) of section 245.30 of this article. 23 24 § 245.65 Certificates of compliance. 25 1. By the prosecution. When the prosecution has provided the discovery 26 required by sections 245.20 and 245.30 of this article, except for any 27 items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant to section 245.10 of this article, it shall serve upon the defendant and 28 29 file with the court a certificate of compliance. The certificate shall state that, after exercising due diligence and making reasonable 30 31 inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and information subject 32 to discovery, the prosecutor has disclosed and made available all known 33 material and information subject to discovery. It shall also identify the items provided. If additional discovery is subsequently provided 34 35 prior to trial pursuant to section 245.75 of this article, a supple-36 mental certificate shall be served upon the defendant and filed with the 37 court identifying the additional material and information provided. No 38 adverse consequence to the prosecution or the prosecutor shall result from the filing of a certificate of compliance in good faith; but the 39 court may grant a remedy for a discovery violation as provided in 40 41 section 245.85 of this article. 42 2. By the defendant. When the defendant has provided all discovery 43 required by section 245.40 of this article, except for any items or 44 information that are the subject of an order pursuant to section 245.10 45 of this article, counsel for the defendant shall serve upon the prose-46 cution and file with the court a certificate of compliance. The certificate shall state that, after exercising due diligence and making 47 reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and informa-48 tion subject to discovery, counsel for the defendant has disclosed and 49 made available all known material and information subject to discovery. 50 51 It shall also identify the items provided. If additional discovery is subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 245.75 of this 52 53 article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon the prosecution 54 and filed with the court identifying the additional material and infor-55 mation provided. No adverse consequence to the defendant or counsel for 56 the defendant shall result from the filing of a certificate of compli-

1	ance in good faith; but the court may grant a remedy for a discovery
2	violation as provided in section 245.85 of this article.
3	§ 245.70 Court ordered procedures to facilitate compliance.
4	To facilitate compliance with this article, and to reduce or stream-
5	line litigation of any disputes about discovery, the court in its б	discretion may issue an order:
7	1. Requiring that the prosecutor and counsel for the defendant dili-
8	gently confer to attempt to reach an accommodation as to any dispute
9	concerning discovery prior to seeking a ruling from the court;
10	2. Requiring a discovery compliance conference at a specified time
11	prior to trial between the prosecutor, counsel for all defendants, and
12	the court or its staff;
13	3. Requiring the prosecution to file an additional certificate of 14	compliance that states that the prosecutor and/or an appropriate named
15	agent has made reasonable inquiries of all police officers and other
16	persons who have participated in investigating or evaluating the case
17	about the existence of any favorable evidence or information within 18	paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section 245.30 of this article,
19	including such evidence or information that was not reduced to writing
20	or otherwise memorialized or preserved as evidence, and has disclosed
21	any such information to the defendant; and/or 22	4. Requiring other measures or proceedings designed to carry into 23	effect the goals of this article.
24	§ 245.75 Continuing duty to disclose.
25	If either the prosecution or the defendant subsequently learns of
26	additional material or information which it would have been under a duty
27	to disclose pursuant to any provisions of this article at the time of a
28	previous discovery obligation or discovery order, it shall expeditiously
29	notify the other party and disclose the additional material or informa-
30	tion as required for initial discovery under this article. This 31	provision also requires expeditious disclosure by the prosecution of 32	material or information that became relevant to the case or discoverable
33	based upon reciprocal discovery received from the defendant pursuant to 34	section 245.40 of this article.
35	§ 245.80 Work product.
36	This article does not authorize discovery by a party of those portions 37	of records, reports, correspondence, memoranda, or internal documents of 38	the adverse party which are only the legal research, opinions, theories
39	or conclusions of the adverse party or its attorney or the attorney's
40	agents, or of statements of a defendant, written or recorded or summa-
41	rized in any writing or recording, made to the attorney for the defend-
42	ant or the attorney's agents.
43	§ 245.85 Availability of remedies for violations.
44	1. Need for remedy. (a) When material or information is discoverable
45	under this article but is disclosed belatedly, the court shall impose an 46	appropriate remedy if the party entitled to disclosure shows that it was 47	significantly prejudiced. If the untimely disclosure occurred because 48	the party responsible failed to make reasonably diligent efforts to
49	comply with this article, the court has discretion to impose an appro-
50	priate remedy if the party entitled to disclosure shows some prejudice.
51	Regardless of a showing of prejudice the party entitled to disclosure
52	shall be given reasonable time to prepare and respond to the new materi-
52 53	al.
54 55	(b) When material or information is discoverable under this article but cannot be disclosed because it has been lost or destroyed, the court
55 56	—
56	shall impose an appropriate remedy if the party entitled to disclosure shows that the lost or destroyed material may have contained some infor-1 mation relevant to a contested issue. The appropriate remedy is that 2 3 which is proportionate to the potential ways in which the lost or 4 destroyed material reasonably could have been helpful to the party enti-5 tled to disclosure. б 2. Available remedies. For failure to comply with any discovery order 7 imposed or issued pursuant to this article, the court may make a further 8 order for discovery, grant a continuance, order that a hearing be 9 reopened, order that a witness be called or recalled, instruct the jury 10 that it may draw an adverse inference regarding the noncompliance, 11 preclude or strike a witness's testimony or a portion of a witness's testimony, admit or exclude evidence, order a mistrial, order the 12 dismissal of all or some of the charges, or make such other order as it 13 14 deems just under the circumstances; except that any sanction against the 15 defendant shall comport with the defendant's constitutional right to 16 present a defense, and precluding a defense witness from testifying 17 shall be permissible only upon a finding that the defendant's failure to comply with the discovery obligation or order was willful and motivated 18 19 by a desire to obtain a tactical advantage. 3. Consequences of nondisclosure of statement of testifying prose-20 21 cution witness. The failure of the prosecutor or any agent of the prosecutor to disclose any written or recorded statement made by a prose-22 cution witness which relates to the subject matter of the witness's 23 testimony shall not constitute grounds for any court to order a new 24 25 pre-trial hearing or set aside a conviction, or reverse, modify or 26 vacate a judgment of conviction, in the absence of a showing by the 27 defendant that there is a reasonable possibility that the non-disclosure materially contributed to the result of the trial or other proceeding; 28 provided, however, that nothing in this section shall affect or limit 29 30 any right the defendant may have to a reopened pre-trial hearing when 31 such statements were disclosed before the close of evidence at trial. 32 245.90 Admissibility of discovery. 33 The fact that a party has indicated during the discovery process an intention to offer specified evidence or to call a specified witness is 34 35 not admissible in evidence or grounds for adverse comment at a hearing 36 or a trial. 37 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 255.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 38 amended by chapter 369 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as 39 follows: 40 1. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, whether the defend-41 ant is represented by counsel or elects to proceed pro se, all pre-trial 42 motions shall be served or filed within forty-five days after arraign-43 ment and before commencement of trial, or within such additional time as the court may fix upon application of the defendant made prior to entry 44 of judgment. In an action in which either (a) material or information 45 46 has been disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (c) or (h) of subdivision two 47 of section 245.20, (b) an eavesdropping warrant and application have been furnished pursuant to section 700.70 or (c) a notice of intention 48 to introduce evidence has been served pursuant to section 710.30, such 49 50 period shall be extended until forty-five days after the last date of 51 such service. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and has 52 requested an adjournment to obtain counsel or to have counsel assigned, 53 such forty-five day period shall commence on the date counsel initially 54 appears on defendant's behalf. 55 S 4. Subdivision 8 of section 450.20 of the criminal procedure law is 56 amended to read as follows:

8. An order suppressing evidence, entered before trial pursuant to 1 2 section 710.20, or an order precluding evidence, entered before trial pursuant to section 710.30; provided that the people file a statement in 3 4 the appellate court pursuant to section 450.50. 5 § 5. Section 450.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read б as follows: 7 § 450.50 Appeal by people from order suppressing or precluding evidence; 8 filing of statement in appellate court. 9 In taking an appeal, pursuant to subdivision eight of section 1. 10 450.20, to an intermediate appellate court from an order of a criminal 11 court suppressing or precluding evidence, the people must file, in addition to a notice of appeal or, as the case may be, an affidavit of 12 13 errors, a statement asserting that the deprivation of the use of the 14 evidence ordered suppressed or precluded has rendered the sum of the proof available to the people with respect to a criminal charge which 15 16 has been filed in the court either (a) insufficient as a matter of law, 17 or (b) so weak in its entirety that any reasonable possibility of prosecuting such charge to a conviction has been effectively destroyed. 18 19 2. The taking of an appeal by the people, pursuant to subdivision 20 eight of section 450.20, from an order suppressing or precluding 21 evidence constitutes a bar to the prosecution of the accusatory instrument involving the evidence ordered suppressed or precluded, unless and 22 23 until such suppression or preclusion order is reversed upon appeal and 24 vacated. § 6. Subdivision 3 of section 610.20 of the criminal procedure law 25 is 26 amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows: 27 3. An attorney for a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, as an officer of a criminal court, may issue a subpoena of such court, 28 29 subscribed by himself, for the attendance in such court of any witness 30 whom the defendant is entitled to call in such action or proceeding. An 31 attorney for a defendant may not issue a subpoena duces tecum of the 32 court directed to any department, bureau or agency of the state or of a 33 political subdivision thereof, or to any officer or representative ther-34 eof, unless the subpoena is indorsed by the court and provides at least 35 three days for the production of the requested materials. In the case of 36 an emergency, the court may by order dispense with the three-day 37 production period. [Such a subpoena duces tecum may be issued in behalf 38 of a defendant upon order of a court pursuant to the rules applicable to civil cases as provided in section twenty-three hundred seven of the 39 40 civil practice law and rules.] 41 4. The showing required to sustain any subpoena under this section is 42 that the testimony or evidence sought is reasonably likely to be relevant and material to the proceedings, and the subpoena is not overbroad 43 44 or unreasonably burdensome. 45 7. Section 710.30 of the criminal procedure law, as separately S 46 amended by chapters 8 and 194 of the laws of 1976, subdivision 1 as 47 amended by section 6 of part VVV of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows: 48 49 § 710.30 Motion to suppress evidence; notice to defendant of intention 50 to offer evidence. Whenever the people intend to offer at a trial (a) evidence of a 51 1. 52 statement made by a defendant to a public servant, which statement if 53 involuntarily made would render the evidence thereof suppressible upon 54 motion pursuant to subdivision three of section 710.20, or (b) testimony 55 regarding an observation of the defendant either at the time or place of the commission of the offense or upon some other occasion relevant to 56 the case, to be given by a witness who has previously identified him or 1 2 her or a pictorial, photographic, electronic, filmed or video recorded 3 reproduction of him or her as such, or (c) tangible objects obtained 4 from the defendant or a place or entity in which a court may rule that 5 the defendant had standing, they must serve upon the defendant a notice б of such intention, specifying the evidence intended to be offered. Where 7 notice is given under subdivision two of this section, such notice shall 8 specify all identification procedures in which the witness participated, 9 including photographic procedures, regardless of whether the particular 10 procedure will be offered at trial. 11 Such notice must be served within fifteen days after arraignment 2. 12 and before trial, and upon such service the defendant must be accorded 13 reasonable opportunity to move before trial, pursuant to subdivision one 14 of section 710.40, to suppress the specified evidence. [For good cause shown, however] Where the people establish that they acted with due 15 16 diligence, the court may permit the people to serve such notice, there-17 after and in such case it must accord the defendant reasonable opportu-18 nity thereafter to make a suppression motion. 19 3. In the absence of service of notice upon a defendant as prescribed 20 in this section, no evidence of a kind specified in subdivision one may 21 received against him upon trial unless he has, despite the lack of be such notice, moved to suppress such evidence and such motion has been 22 denied and the evidence thereby rendered admissible as prescribed in 23 subdivision two of section 710.70. 24 25 4. On an appeal from a judgment of conviction, a defendant who moved 26 to suppress evidence after having unsuccessfully sought preclusion of 27 such evidence under this section may challenge both the denial of 28 preclusion and the denial of suppression. 29 § 8. Section 215.11 of the penal law, as added by chapter 664 of the 30 laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows: 31 § 215.11 Tampering with a witness in the third degree. 32 A person is guilty of tampering with a witness in the third degree 33 a person is about to be called as a witness in a when, knowing that 34 criminal proceeding: 35 1. He wrongfully compels or attempts to compel such person to absent 36 himself from, or otherwise to avoid or seek to avoid appearing or testi-37 fying at such proceeding by means of instilling in him a fear that the 38 actor will cause physical injury to such person or another person; or 39 2. He wrongfully compels or attempts to compel such person to swear falsely by means of instilling in him a fear that the actor will cause 40 41 physical injury to such person or another person. 42 Tampering with a witness in the third degree is a class $[\mathbf{E}] \mathbf{D}$ felony. 43 § 9. Section 215.12 of the penal law, as added by chapter 664 of the 44 laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows: 45 § 215.12 Tampering with a witness in the second degree. 46 A person is guilty of tampering with a witness in the second degree 47 when he: 1. Intentionally causes physical injury to a person for the purpose of 48 49 obstructing, delaying, preventing or impeding the giving of testimony in 50 a criminal proceeding by such person or another person or for the 51 purpose of compelling such person or another person to swear falsely; or 52 2. He intentionally causes physical injury to a person on account of 53 such person or another person having testified in a criminal proceeding. 54 Tampering with a witness in the second degree is a class $[\mathbf{P}] \subseteq$ felony. § 10. Section 215.15 of the penal law, as added by chapter 667 of the 55 56 laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of intimidating a victim or witness in the third 2 degree when, knowing that another person possesses information relating 3 4 to a criminal transaction and other than in the course of that criminal 5 transaction or immediate flight therefrom, he: 6 1. Wrongfully compels or attempts to compel such other person to 7 refrain from communicating such information to any court, grand jury, 8 prosecutor, police officer or peace officer by means of instilling in him a fear that the actor will cause physical injury to such other 9
