AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to farm worker meal and lodging minimum wage credits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 673 of the labor law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3 3. Meals, lodging and utilities allowances. Notwithstanding any other 4 provision of law or regulation to the contrary, the following items and 5 their respective values may be considered part of the minimum wage rate, 6 and shall be annually adjusted to reflect an increase in the rate of 7 cost of living, as determined by the cost of living adjustment calcula-8 tor, if any of the following items are provided to the employee:

9 a. Meals. Employees may be charged $2.95 per meal on or after January 10 first, two thousand eighteen. No allowance for meals shall be consid-11 ered as part of the minimum wage if a migrant seasonal employee earns 12 less than $440.87 in a two-week period on or after January first, two 13 thousand eighteen, other than by reason of voluntary absence.

14 b. Lodging and utilities. (1) Migrant seasonal employees. No allowance 15 for lodging or utilities shall be considered as part of the minimum wage 16 for a migrant seasonal employee. (2) All other employees. All other 17 employees not provided for in subparagraph one of this paragraph may be 18 charged $32.89 per week on and after January first, two thousand eigh-19 teen per employee for single occupancy or $21.96 per week on and after 20 January first, two thousand eighteen per employee for multiple occupan-
21 cy. When a house or apartment and utilities are furnished by an employer 22 to an employee, a fair and reasonable amount may be allowed for such
