3 tially reduced by the landlord.

4 4. The public welfare department may obtain and maintain current 5 records of violations in buildings where welfare recipients reside which 6 relate to conditions which are dangerous, hazardous [~~or~~], detrimental to 7 life or health, or where the landlord of such housing accommodations

13 relate to conditions which are dangerous, hazardous [~~or~~], detrimental to 14 life or health, or the landlord of such housing accommodations owes 35 liabilities.

36 6. Nothing in this section shall prevent the public welfare department 37 from making provision for payment of the rent which was withheld pursu-

39 constituting a violation was actually corrected or delinquent tax
40 liabilities owed to local municipalities, school districts or counties
41 were paid. Where rents were reduced by order of the appropriate rent
42 commission, the public welfare department may make provision for payment 43 of the reduced rent in conformity with such order.

44 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
