18 § 5. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 899-aa of the general 19 business law, as added by chapter 442 of the laws of 2005, is amended to 20 read as follows:

21 (b) "Private information" shall mean personal information consisting 22 of any information in combination with any one or more of the following 23 data elements, when either the personal information or the data element 24 is not encrypted, or encrypted with an encryption key that has also been 25 acquired:

26 (1) social security number;
27 (2) driver's license number or non-driver identification card number;
28 or

29 (3) account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with 30 any required security code, access code, or password that would permit 31 access to an individual's financial account; or

32 (4) medical information; or

33 (5) health insurance information;

34 For purposes of this paragraph, "medical information" means any infor-
35 mation regarding an individual's medical history, mental or physical 36 condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis by a health care profes-37 sional.

38 For purposes of this paragraph, "health insurance information" means 39 an individual's health insurance policy number or subscriber identifica-
40 tion number, any unique identifier used by a health insurer to identify 41 the individual or any information in an individual's application and 42 claims history, including, but not limited to, appeals history.

43 "Private information" does not include publicly available information 44 which is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, 45 state, or local government records.

46 § 6. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 208 of the state tech-47 nology law, as added by chapter 442 of the laws of 2005, is amended to 48 read as follows:

49 (a) "Private information" shall mean personal information in combina-
50 tion with any one or more of the following data elements, when either 51 the personal information or the data element is not encrypted or 52 encrypted with an encryption key that has also been acquired:

53 (1) social security number;
54 (2) driver's license number or non-driver identification card number;

(3) account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password which would permit access to an individual's financial account[~~✓~~]; or

(4) medical information; or

(5) health insurance information.

For purposes of this paragraph, "medical information" means any information regarding an individual's medical history, mental or physical condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis by a health care professional.

For purposes of this paragraph, "health insurance information" means an individual's health insurance policy number or subscriber identification number, any unique identifier used by a health insurer to identify the individual or any information in an individual's application and claims history, including, but not limited to, appeals history.

"Private information" does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, state, or local government records.

§ 7. Sections 190.77, 190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.80-a, 190.81, 190.82, 190.83, 190.84, 190.85 and 190.86 of the penal law are REPEALED.

§ 8. Subdivision 1 of section 60.27 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 279 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

1. In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of an offense, and after providing the district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitution of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss caused thereby and, in the case of a violation of section [~~190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.82 or 190.83~~] 191.05, 191.10, 191.15, 191.20 or 191.25 of this chapter, any costs or losses incurred due to any adverse action taken against the victim. The district attorney shall where appropriate, advise the court at or before the time of sentencing that the victim seeks restitution or reparation, the extent of injury or economic loss or damage of the victim, and the amount of restitution or reparation sought by the victim in accordance with his or her responsibilities under subdivision two of section 390.50 of the criminal procedure law and article twenty-three of the executive law. The court shall hear and consider the information presented by the district attorney in this regard. In that event, or when the victim impact statement reports that the victim seeks restitution or reparation, the court shall require, unless the interests of justice dictate otherwise, in addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article that the defendant make restitution of the fruits of the offense and reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss and, in the case of a violation of section [~~190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.82 or 190.83~~] 191.05, 191.10, 191.15, 191.20 or 191.25 of this chapter, any costs or losses incurred due to any adverse action, caused thereby to the victim. In the event that restitution or reparation are not ordered, the court shall clearly state its reasons on the record. Adverse action as used in this subdivision shall mean and include actual loss incurred by the victim, including an amount equal to the value of the time reasonably spent by the victim attempting to remediate the harm incurred by the victim from the offense, and the consequential financial losses from such action.

1 § 9. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 of section 60.27 of the penal law, 2 as amended by chapter 313 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 (b) the term "victim" shall include the victim of the offense, the 5 representative of a crime victim as defined in subdivision six of 6 section six hundred twenty-one of the executive law, an individual whose 7 identity was assumed or whose personal identifying information was used 8 in violation of section [~~190.78, 190.79 or 190.80~~] 191.05, 191.10, 9 191.15, 191.20 or 191.25 of this chapter, or any person who has suffered 10 a financial loss as a direct result of the acts of a defendant in 11 violation of section [~~190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.82 or 190.83~~] 191.05, 12 191.10, 191.15, 191.20 or 191.25 of this chapter, a good samaritan as 13 defined in section six hundred twenty-one of the executive law and the 14 office of victim services or other governmental agency that has received 15 an application for or has provided financial assistance or compensation
16 to the victim. A victim shall also mean any owner or lawful producer of 17 a master recording, or a trade association that represents such owner or 18 lawful producer, that has suffered injury as a result of an offense as 19 defined in article two hundred seventy-five of this chapter.

20 § 10. Subdivision 2 of section 646 of the executive law, as amended by 21 chapter 346 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

22 2. An individual whose identity was assumed or whose personal identi-23 fying information, as defined in [~~section 190.77~~] subdivision one of 24 section 191.00 of the penal law, was used in violation of section 25 [~~190.78, 190.79 or 190.80~~] 191.05, 191.10, 191.15, 191.20 or 191.25 of 26 the penal law, or any person who has suffered a financial loss as a
27 direct result of the acts of a defendant in violation of section
28 [~~190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.82 or 190.83~~] 191.05, 191.10, 191.15,
29 191.20 or 191.25 of the penal law, who has learned or reasonably 30 suspects that his or her personal identifying information has been 31 unlawfully used by another, may make a complaint to the local law 32 enforcement agency of the county in which any part of the offense took 33 place regardless of whether the defendant was actually present in such 34 county, or in the county in which the person who suffered financial loss
35 resided at the time of the commission of the offense, or in the county 36 where the person whose personal identification information was used in 37 the commission of the offense resided at the time of the commission of 38 the offense as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision four of section
39 20.40 of the criminal procedure law. Said local law enforcement agency 40 shall take a police report of the matter and provide the complainant
41 with a copy of such report free of charge.

42 § 11. This act shall take effect immediately.
