1 nity to work or study, wholly or in principal part, outside of the 2 United States of America.

3 4. "Study abroad organization" shall mean college, university or post-
4 secondary institutions as well as third party entities that offer study 5 abroad programs.

6 § 6458. General provisions. Study abroad organizations shall prior-7 itize the health, safety, and security of its students through policies, 8 procedures, advising, orientation, and training.

9 1. Study abroad organizations shall prioritize health, safety, and 10 security in program development, implementation and management by 11 conducting appropriate risk assessments for such program sites and 12 activities, maintaining written emergency plans and protocols, and iden-13 tifying and leveraging relevant authorities, networks and resources.

14 2. Study abroad organizations' staff shall be trained to anticipate 15 and respond responsibly to student health, safety, or security issues
16 and students shall be provided training to responsibly manage their own
17 health, safety, and security while abroad. Study abroad organizations 18 shall establish measures to monitor and advise students on health, safe-
19 ty, and security issues through the United States department of state 20 and other appropriate resources.

21 3. Study abroad organizations shall maintain appropriate insurance
22 policies at recommended levels, operate in compliance with local laws, 23 and follow best practices in reporting on critical incidents.

24 4. Study abroad organizations may adopt and implement policies in 25 accordance with the Standards of Good Practice for Education Abroad, 26 made available by the Forum on Education Abroad.

27 § 6459. Reporting. 1. Beginning one year after the effective date of 28 this article, study abroad organizations shall make and file an annual 29 report to the department by August fifteenth of each year. Such report 30 shall be prepared by all reasonably available data and shall consist of 31 data from the previous two years and comply with the federal health 32 insurance portability and accountability act (HIPAA) of 1996, as 33 amended, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. section 34 1681, et. seq.) and all other applicable regulations. Data representing 35 individuals shall be in numerical form omitting personal information.

36 2. The report mandated by this section shall include:

37 a. for the previous academic year, including summer terms, the effec-
38 tiveness of the study abroad program at protecting students from crime
39 and harm, whether changes to such program are needed and how such chang-
40 es will be implemented;

41 b. for the ten years preceding the date of the report, when such data 42 is reasonably attainable, the number of:

43 i. deaths of program participants including manner of death;

44 ii. accidents and illnesses that resulted in hospitalization including 45 the type of such accident or illness;

46 iii. sexual assaults against program participants;

47 iv. incidents that resulted in a police report including type of inci-48 dent; and

49 v. with respect to the incidents described in subparagraphs i through 50 iv of this paragraph, whether the incidents occurred:

51 (1) during program participation;

52 (2) during students own time;

53 (3) on campus;

54 (4) off campus;

55 (5) the location of the incident; and

56 (6) the time of the incident.

1 c. Study abroad organizations shall also report on ethical relation-2 ships and conflict of interest avoidance policies with all major part-3 ners.

4 § 6460. Student resources. 1. Study abroad organizations shall provide 5 each student who is interested in participating in a program of study 6 abroad, with pre-registration information advising that includes:

7 a. all current travel information, including all travel warnings and 8 travel alerts, issued by the bureau of consular affairs of the depart-
9 ment of state for such countries;

10 b. all current safety alerts known within thirty miles of the campus
11 including information obtained by students from post-trip orientation 12 sessions or reports; and

13 c. the reporting information required by the department as identified 14 in section sixty-four hundred fifty-nine of this article.

15 2. Study abroad organizations shall provide each student who returns
16 from a study abroad program with an anonymous post-semester evaluation 17 questionnaire, and the opportunity for a documented exit interview which 18 shall focus on the program's effectiveness in best practices and student 19 safety. These reports are to be made available to the public upon 20 request.

21 3. Study abroad organizations shall include references to the avail-22 ability of the reports identified in sections sixty-four hundred fifty-23 nine and sixty-four hundred sixty of this article on all websites and 24 printed materials.

25 § 6461. Program assessment. 1. The department shall, using existing 26 staff and budget, assess the effectiveness of this article and appropri-
27 ate state regulation of postsecondary study abroad programs. The assess-28 ment shall focus on the protection, the health and safety of students in 29 postsecondary study abroad programs; and the reporting process. The 30 department shall make their assessments and the reports required in 31 section sixty-four hundred fifty-nine of this article to any state
32 legislator upon request.

33 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
