4 a strong model management policy statement defining and prohibiting 5 sexual harassment in the workplace. Such model policy shall include 6 recommendations on how employers may provide information and remedies to 7 employees, including but not limited to a statement informing employees
8 of their rights of redress, and the availability of complaint resolution

4 § 2. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding two new 5 subdivisions 1-b and 22 to read as follows:

6 1-b. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer 7 to:

8 (a) engage in unwelcome sexual advances towards, make requests for 9 sexual favors from, or engage in other verbal or physical conduct of a 10 sexual or sex-based nature with an employee when: (i) submission to such 11 conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of 12 an individual's employment; (ii) submission to or rejection of such 13 conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions 14 affecting such individual; or (iii) such conduct has the purpose or 15 effect of interfering with an individual's work performance by creating 16 an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

17 (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "employer" shall include any 18 individual who may hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote,

21 of such authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature, but 22 requires the use of independent judgment.

23 22. In any case brought pursuant to the provisions of this article on 24 the basis of sex or sexual harassment only, where a person alleges that 25 a covered entity has deprived such person of equal terms and conditions
26 of employment, liability for such alleged unlawful discriminatory act 27 shall attach where the complainant or plaintiff demonstrates that the 28 conduct complained of was motivated in whole or in part by the person's 29 sex, regardless of the level of pervasiveness or severity of the 30 discrimination or harassment. A covered entity may demonstrate as an 31 affirmative defense to liability pursuant to this subdivision that the 32 discrimination or harassment complained of consisted of no greater than 33 what a reasonable victim of discrimination or harassment would consider 34 petty slights and trivial annoyances.
