AN ACT to amend the education law and the state finance law, in relation to tuition awards for active members of the reserve armed forces of the United States and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 669-i 2 to read as follows:
- § 669-i. Tuition awards for members of the reserve armed forces of the 4 United States. 1. The division of military and naval affairs is author-5 ized, within amounts appropriated or otherwise lawfully available from any other source, to establish a tuition award program.
 - 2. As used in this section, the term:
 - a. "Active member" shall mean a member of a branch of the reserve armed forces of the United States who meets the minimum requirements for satisfactory active membership as set forth in the regulations of the United States departments of the army, coast guard, navy and air force, as applicable.
- 13 b. "Degree producing curriculum" shall mean a series of courses 14 programmed to culminate in a specific post-secondary degree or diploma 15 when successfully completed.
- 16 c. "Tuition" shall mean the total semester, quarter, or classroom hour cost of instruction to the student as periodically published in the 17

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

catalogue of the institution, specifically excluding mandatory fees, 1 book charges, and room and board.

- d. "Tuition benefit" shall mean an award equal to the amount of undergraduate tuition for residents of New York state charged by the state university of New York or actual tuition charged, whichever is less, for each semester, or the equivalent, of full-time study, or a pro-rated amount for part-time study; provided, however, that such award shall not be reduced by any benefits available under the federal Montgomery GI Bill act of 1984 or the federal Pell grant program pursuant to section one thousand seventy-a of title twenty of the United States code.
- "Part-time study" shall mean enrollment in an approved post-secondary degree program for at least three but less than twelve semester hours, or the equivalent per semester, in an approved undergraduate or graduate program.
- f. "Institution" shall mean any institution of higher education recognized and approved by the regents or the university of the state of New York which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a postsecondary degree or diploma or an approved vocational training program.
- g. "Legal resident" shall mean a person whose principal domicile is located within New York state in excess of one hundred eighty-six days per year and has been so domiciled for not less than the three previous years; excepting active federal military duty who was a resident of the state at the time of entry into the armed forces of the United States and is an active member of the reserve armed forces of the United States.
- h. "Approved vocational training programs" means programs offered by agencies approved by the commissioner for funding pursuant to this section. The commissioner shall approve only such non-credit programs which are at least three hundred twenty clock hours in length, and which meet standards of instructional quality established in regulations by the commissioner. These standards shall include, but not be limited to, qualifications of administrative and instructional personnel, quality of facilities and equipment, recordkeeping, admission, grading, attendance, and record of placement of completers which meets standards of acceptability as established by the commissioner.
- 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special, or local law, rule, or regulation, any active member who has successfully completed advanced individual training or commissioning and other requirements of the division of military and naval affairs for tuition benefit eligibility shall be entitled to the tuition benefit provided by this section upon his or her enrollment in a degree producing curriculum in any institution or an approved vocational training program.
- 4. Unless otherwise provided for in this section, eligibility for the tuition benefit provided by this section shall be determined by the education services offices of the division of military and naval affairs, which shall issue certificates of eligibility and promulgate such administrative rules and procedures as are necessary to implement the tuition benefit provided under this section. Such administrative rules and procedures shall include in the factors for the determination of eligibility for the tuition benefit provided by this section the fulfillment of the obligation and commitments for service in the reserve armed forces of the United States.
- 53 The tuition benefit provided by this section shall be restricted 54 to legal residents of the state. The benefit may be used for either part-time or full-time study. No restriction as to sessions, student 55 status, or space availability which does not apply to all students shall 1 2 be placed by institutions upon recipients under this program.

- 6. a. No recipient shall receive awards for more than eight semesters of full-time undergraduate study, or the equivalent of four academic years, or, if an undergraduate program normally requires five academic years of full-time study, for more than ten semesters of full-time study, or the equivalent of five academic years. Recipients enrolled in a program of remedial study conforming to the provisions of this article, approved by the commissioner in a degree granting institution, and intended to culminate in an undergraduate degree shall be considered as enrolled in a program normally requiring five years. No recipient enrolled in an approved vocational training program shall receive awards for more than four semesters of full-time study or the equivalent of two academic years of full-time study.
- b. No recipient shall receive awards for more than sixteen semesters of part-time undergraduate study as defined in subdivision one of this section, or the equivalent of eight academic years of part-time study, or, if an undergraduate program normally requires five academic years of full-time study, for more than twenty semesters of part-time study, or the equivalent of ten academic years. Recipients enrolled in a program of remedial study conforming to the provisions of this chapter, approved by the commissioner in a degree granting institution, and intended to culminate in an undergraduate degree shall be considered as enrolled in a program normally requiring five years. No recipient enrolled in an approved vocational training program shall receive awards for more than eight semesters of part-time study or the equivalent of four academic years of part-time study.
- 28 c. No recipient shall receive awards for more than six semesters of 29 full-time study, or the equivalent of three academic years, for graduate study. No recipient shall receive awards for more than twelve semesters 30 31 of part-time graduate study as defined in subdivision one of this 32 section, or the equivalent of six academic years of part-time graduate 33 study.
 - 7. Upon the recipient's cessation of status as an active member, the benefit provided by this section shall be discontinued. The tuition benefit provided by this section may be suspended at the direction of the division of military and naval affairs for a recipient's failure to maintain good military standing as an active member, for the failure to maintain good academic progress and program pursuit, or for the failure to maintain sufficient academic standing to retain eligibility for any other financial assistance the recipient may be receiving.
 - 8. Unless otherwise provided for in this section, the tuition benefit shall be on the terms and conditions set by the division of military and naval affairs. For the purposes of this subdivision, benefits available under the federal Montgomery GI Bill act of 1984 shall not be considered as federal or other educational aid.
 - 9. The tuition benefit provided by this section shall be effective beginning with the school semester or quarter following the effective date of this section.
- \S 2. Section 604 of the education law is amended by adding a new 51 subdivision 13 to read as follows:
- 13. Tuition awards for active members of the reserve armed forces of the United States enrolled in approved post-secondary degree programs in 54 degree-granting institutions.
- 55 § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 91-g to 56 read as follows:

§ 91-q. Tuition award account. 1. There is hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller and the commissioner of taxation and finance an account in the miscellaneous special revenue fund to be known as the tuition award account.

- 2. Such account shall consist of all revenues received from contributions, donations and all other moneys credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.
- 3. Moneys of the account, following appropriation by the legislature may be expended for the tuition award program for members of the reserve armed forces of the United States. Moneys shall be paid out of the account on the audit and warrant of the state comptroller on vouchers certified or approved by the adjutant general of New York state.
- § 4. The division of military and naval affairs shall report on the 14 operation and subsequent effectiveness of the program created by this act, one year after it shall have become a law and annually thereafter, to the governor, temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly. Upon the expiration and repeal of the provisions of this act, such division shall continue to make such report in any year in which any person receives benefits under the provisions of this act.
- § 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-20 21 ing the date on which it shall have become a law and shall expire and be 22 deemed repealed five years after such date; provided that any person who has begun to receive the benefits of this act prior to its expiration 23 24 and repeal shall be entitled to continue to receive the benefits of this act after its expiration and repeal until completion of a post-secondary 25 26 degree or cessation of status as an active member, whichever occurs 27 first.
