

STATE OF NEW YORK

7241

IN SENATE

January 5, 2018

Introduced by Sen. HAMILTON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law and the legislative law, in relation to requiring the division of human rights to develop and implement a uniform sexual harassment policy for all state agencies, offices and departments, the executive department, and the legislature

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 295 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 17 to read as follows:

17. To develop and implement a uniform sexual harassment policy for all employees of state agencies, offices, departments, including the executive department, and officials, members and employees of the legislature. Such policy shall define the conduct which is prohibited, establish a process for the resolution of complaints of such conduct, and provide for appropriate training for all employees of state agencies, offices, departments, including the executive department, and officials, members and employees of the legislature. Copies of the sexual harassment policy promulgated pursuant to this subdivision shall be distributed to all employees of state agencies, offices, departments, including the executive department, and officials, members and employees of the legislature and shall be available to the public. Such policy shall include, but not be limited to: a standard reporting requirement, requiring an investigation which takes no more than ninety days from the commencement of the complaint and a determination by the division no more than thirty days after the completion of such investigation; and providing that any confidentiality agreement in or in connection with, or collateral to, a settlement agreement involving a claim of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct is against public policy and is void and unenforceable.

§ 2. The legislative law is amended by adding a new section 33-a to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
