IN SENATE

January 12, 2018

Introduced by Sen. HAMILTON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cities -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to directing certain police departments to publish data relating to arrests for fare evasion at bus stops

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new section 209-gg to read as follows:

§ 209-gg. Reporting of arrests for bus fare evasion. a. Within thirty days of the end of each calendar quarter, the police department of each municipality containing at least one bus stop shall publish, on its internet website, a report for the preceding quarter which shall include the total number of arrests for theft of services in violation of subdivision three of section 165.15 of the penal law that occurred at a bus stop, further broken down by:

1. the location of the arrests;

2. the race of the defendants;

3. the sex of the defendants; and

4. the age of the defendants.

b. Each such police department shall store the information required pursuant to subdivision a of this section permanently, which shall be made accessible from the department's website in a format that permits automated processing.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
