Introduced by Sen. MARCELLINO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to prohibiting the leasing of companion animals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general obligations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 5-336 to read as follows:

3 § 5-336. Pet leasing. 1. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of 4 this subdivision, a contract to transfer ownership of a companion animal 5 in which ownership is contingent upon a lease or upon the making of 6 payments over a period of time subsequent to the transfer of possession 7 of the animal is void as against public policy.

8 (b) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to payments to 9 repay an unsecured loan for the purchase of a companion animal.

10 2. A contract entered into for the lease of a companion animal that 11 provides for or offers the option of transferring ownership of the 12 animal at the end of the lease term is void as against public policy.

13 3. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, the consumer 14 taking possession of a companion animal transferred under a contract 15 described in paragraph (a) of subdivision one or in subdivision two of 16 this section shall be deemed the owner of the animal and shall also be 17 entitled to the return of all amounts the consumer paid under the 18 contract.

19 4. "Companion animal" means any dog, cat or other domesticated animal 20 normally maintained in or near the household of the owner or person who 21 cares for such other animal. "Companion animal" shall not include a 22 "farm animal" as defined in section three hundred fifty of the agricul-23 ture and markets law.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the twentieth day after it shall 25 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
