AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a tax credit for the adoption of household pets

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (iii) to read as follows:

(iii) Credit for the adoption of household pets. (1) General. An individual taxpayer shall be allowed a credit for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand seventeen against the tax imposed by this article for the cost of adopting a maximum of three household pets per taxable year from a qualifying animal shelter. The amount of the credit shall be one hundred dollars per animal or the actual cost of such adoption, whichever is less, for a maximum of three pets per taxable year.

(2) Definitions. For the purposes of this subsection:

(A) The term "household pet" shall mean any dog, cat or other domesticated animal kept for the primary purpose of companionship that is normally maintained in or near the household of the owner or person who cares for such domesticated animal, provided that keeping such animal is not in violation of any applicable provisions of federal, state or local law.

(B) The term "qualifying animal shelter" shall mean the following:

(i) Any municipal pound or shelter harboring animals pursuant to subdivision one of section one hundred fourteen of the agriculture and markets law;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
