49 50 notice of claim shall not begin to run until the later of either (i) when the person knows or reasonably should have known of such alleged negligent act or omission and knows or reasonably should have known that such alleged negligent act or omission has caused injury, provided, that such action shall be commenced no later than seven years from such alleged negligent act or omission, or (ii) the date of the last treatment where there is continuous treatment for such injury, illness or condition.

- § 2. Section 214-a of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2017, amending the civil practice law and rules relating to accrual of causes of action for medical, dental and podiatric malpractice, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.6800 and A.8516, is amended to read as follows:
- 14 214-a. Action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice to be 15 commenced within two years and six months; exceptions. An action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice must be commenced within two 16 17 years and six months of the [accrual of any such action. The accrual of an action occurs at the later of either (a) when one knows or reasonably 18 should have known of the alleged negligent failure to diagnose a malig-19 20 nant tumor or cancer, whether by act or omission and knows or reasonably 21 should have known that such negligent act or omission has caused the injury, or (b) the date of the last treatment where there is continuous 22 treatment for the same illness, injury or condition which gave rise to 23 the addrual of an action. However, such action shall commence no later 24 than seven years from the ] act, omission or failure complained of or 25 last treatment where there is continuous treatment for the same illness, 27 injury or condition which gave rise to the said act, omission or failure; provided, however, that: (a) where the action is based upon the 28 29 discovery of a foreign object in the body of the patient, the action may be commenced within one year of the date of such discovery or of the 30 31 date of discovery of facts which would reasonably lead to such discov-32 ery, whichever is earlier; and (b) where the action is based upon the 33 alleged negligent failure to diagnose cancer or a malignant tumor, whether by act or omission, the action may be commenced within two years 34 35 and six months of the later of either (i) when the person knows or 36 reasonably should have known of such alleged negligent act or omission 37 and knows or reasonably should have known that such alleged negligent 38 act or omission has caused injury, provided, that such action shall be commenced no later than seven years from such alleged negligent act or 39 40 omission, or (ii) the date of the last treatment where there is continuous treatment for such injury, illness or condition. For the purpose 41 42 this section the term "continuous treatment" shall not include examinations undertaken at the request of the patient for the sole purpose 43 44 of ascertaining the state of the patient's condition. For the purpose of 45 this section the term "foreign object" shall not include a chemical 46 compound, fixation device or prosthetic aid or device.
  - § 3. Section 3 of a chapter of the laws of 2017, amending the civil practice law and rules relating to accrual of causes of action for medical, dental and podiatric malpractice, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.6800 and A.8516, is REPEALED.
- 51 § 4. Notwithstanding sections 50-e and 50-i of the general municipal law, section 10 of the court of claims act, and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the commencement of an action or special proceeding, or to the serving of a notice of claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding within a specified time period, with regard to any action or claim arising from
