AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, in relation to no-fault divorce

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 170 of the domestic relations law, as added by chapter 384 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(7) The relationship between husband and wife has broken down irretrievably for a period of at least six months, provided that one party has so stated under oath; provided, further, where the non-petitioning spouse to the divorce action is a documented victim of domestic violence by the petitioning spouse the non-petitioning spouse must consent to the divorce in order for it to occur. No judgment of divorce shall be granted under this subdivision unless and until the economic issues of equitable distribution of marital property, the payment or waiver of spousal support, the payment of child support, the payment of counsel and experts' fees and expenses as well as the custody and visitation with the infant children of the marriage have been resolved by the parties, or determined by the court and incorporated into the judgment of divorce.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
