38 public authorities control board a binding letter of agreement between 39 the applicant and the grantee or loan recipient, or any beneficiaries of 40 such loan or grant who would be expected to retain or create jobs,
41 expressly and in writing attesting that they agreed to the job creation 42 or job retention clawback requirements as a precondition to receiving 43 the grant or loan.

44 5. A public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this 45 section may submit to the public authorities control board a potential 46 project for comment from the public authorities control board. Such 47 preliminary project shall be submitted to all public authorities control 48 board members and all members as well as the state comptroller, and each 49 shall have thirty days to comment on the preliminary project, if they so 50 choose. Any such comments shall be filed by the public authorities
51 control board and transmitted to the relevant public benefit corpo-
52 ration. Any such comment shall be purely advisory, shall have no binding 53 effect on any future decision of the public authorities control board, 54 and shall not provide approval for any project.

1 § 2. Subdivisions 8 and 9 of section 51 of the public authorities law,
2 as added by chapter 838 of the laws of 1983 and as renumbered by section 3 one of this act, are amended to read as follows:

14 the battery park city authority in progress on the first day of July, 15 nineteen hundred eighty, and with regard to a project of any other 16 public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section in 17 progress on the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-three, as 18 determined by the New York state public authorities control board whose 19 affirmative determination shall be conclusive as to all matters of law 20 and fact for the purpose of the limitations of this section.

21 9. Nothing contained in subdivisions one, [~~two~~] six and [~~three~~] seven 22 of this section shall limit the right or obligation of any public bene-23 fit corporation subject to the provisions of this section to comply with 24 the provisions of any existing contract, including any existing contract 25 with or for the benefit of the holders of any obligations of any public 26 benefit corporation.

27 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
