IN SENATE

March 5, 2018

Introduced by Sen. MARCHIONE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the local finance law and chapter 413 of the laws of 1991, amending the local finance law and other laws relating to providing relief to local governments for certain mandated programs and services, in relation to local government borrowing practices and mandate relief

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph b of section 21.00 of the local finance law, as amended by chapter 77 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

3 b. Serial bonds shall mature in annual installments. The first installment shall mature not later than eighteen months after the date of such bonds or two years after the date of the first bond anticipation note or notes issued in anticipation of such bonds, whichever is the earlier, provided, however, that until July fifteenth, two thousand 9 [eighteen] twenty-one, the first installment shall mature not later than 10 two years after the date of such bonds or two years after the date of 11 the first bond anticipation note or notes issued in anticipation of such 12 bonds, whichever is the earlier. However, if bond anticipation notes are 13 issued in anticipation of bonds and if a portion of such notes or the 14 renewals thereof are redeemed from a source other than the proceeds of such bonds within two years from the date of the first such note or notes and a further portion thereof shall be so redeemed prior to the 16 termination of each twelve months' period succeeding the date such 17 original portion was so redeemed, the first installment of such bonds 18 19 may, in the alternative, be made to mature not later than five years 20 from the date of the first such note or notes.

21 § 2. Paragraph b of section 53.00 of the local finance law, as amended 22 by chapter 77 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

23 b. If such bonds or notes are payable in installments, the install-24 ments remaining unpaid may be called for redemption only (i) in the 25 inverse order of their maturity or, (ii) in equal proportionate amounts;

for bonds issued during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand up until and including July fifteenth, two thousand three, and for bonds issued during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand three up 3 until and including July fifteenth, two thousand six, and for bonds issued during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand six up until and including July fifteenth, two thousand nine, and for bonds issued 7 during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand nine up until and including July fifteenth, two thousand twelve, and for bonds issued 9 during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand twelve up until and 10 including July fifteenth, two thousand fifteen, and for bonds issued during the period from July fifteenth, two thousand fifteen up until and 11 including July fifteenth, two thousand [eighteen] twenty-one, a munici-12 13 pality, school district, or district corporation may provide for redemp-14 tion of such bonds prior to the date of their maturity at a price or 15 prices as may be as determined by the issuer of such bonds or notes at the time of the issuance thereof. 16

3. The opening paragraph of paragraph a of section 54.90 of the local finance law, as amended by chapter 77 of the laws of 2015, amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the finance board the interest of a municipality would be served thereby, the municipality may issue bonds or notes, on or before July fifteenth, two thousand [eighteen] twenty-one, with interest rates that vary in accordance with a formula or procedure and are subject to a maximum rate of interest set forth or referred to in the bonds or notes and may provide the holders thereof with such rights to require the municipality or other persons to purchase such bonds or notes or renewals thereof from the proceeds of the resale thereof or otherwise from time to time prior to the final maturity of such bonds or notes as the finance board may determine and the municipality may resell, at any time prior to final maturity, any such bonds or notes acquired as a result of the exercise of such rights; provided, however, that at no time shall the total principal amount of bonds and notes issued pursuant to this paragraph (other than bonds and notes bearing interest at rates and for periods of time that are specified at issuance) exceed ten percent of the limit prescribed by section 104.00 this article.

- Subdivision 9 of paragraph d of section 107.00 of the local finance law, as amended by chapter 77 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the financing by any municipality, prior to July fifteenth, two thousand [eighteen] twentyone, of any object or purpose which has a period of probable usefulness determined by law, by the issuance of any bonds and notes, including (i) the issuance of bonds or notes, to redeem notes previously issued for the object or purpose for which the bonds or notes are being issued or (ii) the issuance of bonds to refund bonds previously issued for the object or purpose for which bonds are being issued.
- § 5. Subdivisions (a) and (e) of section 81 of chapter 413 of the laws of 1991, amending the local finance law and other laws relating to providing relief to local governments for certain mandated programs and services, as amended by chapter 77 of the laws of 2015, are amended to read as follows:
- (a) section six, sixteen and seventeen of this act shall expire and be 54 deemed repealed on and after July 15, [2018] 2021, and upon such date the amendments made to the provisions of the local finance law by such sections shall also expire and such provisions shall revert to and be
