IN SENATE

March 5, 2018

- Introduced by Sens. SAVINO, ALCANTARA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor
- AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to presumptions for injured workers who have not refused an offer of reemployment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 21 of the workers' compensation law, subdivision 5 1 2 as amended by chapter 268 of the laws of 1946, is amended to read as 3 follows: § 21. Presumptions. In any proceeding for the enforcement of a claim 4 5 for compensation under this chapter, it shall be presumed in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary: 6 7 1. That the claim comes within the provision of this chapter $[+]_{\cdot}$ 8 2. That sufficient notice thereof was given[+]. 9 3. That the injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to bring about the injury or death of himself or of 10 another [+]. 11 That the injury did not result solely from the intoxication of the 12 4. 13 injured employee while on duty. 5. That the contents of medical and surgical reports introduced in 14 15 evidence by claimants for compensation shall constitute prima facie 16 evidence of fact as to the matter contained therein. 6. That an injured worker who has not refused an offer of reemployment 17 18 from his or her employer has not voluntarily withdrawn from the labor 19 market.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
