Introduced by Sen. ALCANTARA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to enacting the "plea agreement immigration consequences disclosure act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "plea
2 agreement immigration consequences disclosure act".

3 § 2. Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and 4 declares that in many instances involving an individual who is not a
5 citizen of the United States charged with an offense punishable as a
6 crime under state law, a plea of guilty is entered without the defendant
7 knowing that a conviction of such offense is grounds for deportation,
8 exclusion from admission to the United States, or denial of naturaliza-
9 tion pursuant to the laws of the United States. Therefore, it is the 10 intent of the legislature by enacting this act to promote fairness to 11 such accused individuals by requiring in such cases that acceptance of a 12 guilty plea be preceded by an appropriate warning of the special conse-
13 quences for such a defendant which may result from the plea. It is also 14 the intent of the legislature that the court in such cases shall grant 15 the defendant a reasonable amount of time to negotiate with the prosecu-16 tor in the event the defendant or the defendant's counsel was unaware of 17 the possibility of deportation, exclusion from admission to the United 18 States, or denial of naturalization as a result of conviction. It is 19 further the intent of the legislature that at the time of the plea no 20 defendant shall be required to disclose his or her legal status to the 21 court.

22 § 3. Subdivision 4 of section 170.10 of the criminal procedure law is 23 amended by adding two new paragraphs (f) and (g) to read as follows:

24 (f) Where the accusatory instrument is an information, a prosecutor's 25 information or a misdemeanor complaint, before accepting a plea of guil-

1 ty to any offense punishable as a crime under state law, the court shall 2 address the defendant personally in open court, on the record, under 3 oath, informing him or her of and determining that he or she understands 4 the following: "If you are not a citizen of the United States, you are 5 hereby advised that acceptance by the court of a plea of guilty or 6 conviction of the crime for which you have been charged may result in 7 your deportation, exclusion from admission to the United States, or 8 denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States."
9 Absent a record that the court provided the advisement required by this 10 paragraph, the defendant shall be presumed not to have received the 11 required advisement.

12 (g) Upon request, the court shall allow the defendant additional time 13 to consider the appropriateness of the plea in light of the advisement 14 as described in paragraph (f) of this subdivision.

15 § 4. Section 180.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 16 a new subdivision 8 to read as follows:

17 8. Before accepting a plea of guilty to any offense punishable as a
18 crime under state law, the court shall address the defendant personally 19 in open court, on the record, under oath, informing him or her of and 20 determining that he or she understands the following: "If you are not a 21 citizen of the United States, you are hereby advised that acceptance by 22 the court of a plea of guilty or conviction of the crime for which you
23 have been charged may result in your deportation, exclusion from admis-
24 sion to the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the 25 laws of the United States." Absent a record that the court provided the 26 advisement required by this subdivision, the defendant shall be presumed 27 not to have received the required advisement.

28 Upon request, the court shall allow the defendant additional time to 29 consider the appropriateness of the plea in light of the advisement as 30 described in paragraph (f) of subdivision four of section 170.10 of this 31 title.

32 § 5. Section 210.15 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding
33 a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

34 4. Upon arraignment on an indictment, and prior to acceptance of a 35 plea of guilty to any crime under state law, the defendant shall, in 36 addition to any other warning required by law, be entitled to substan-
37 tially the following advisement to be orally administered by the court 38 and placed upon the record: "If you are not a citizen of the United 39 States, you are hereby advised that acceptance by the court of a plea of 40 guilty or conviction of the crime for which you have been charged may 41 result in your deportation, exclusion from admission to the United 42 States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United 43 States." Absent a record that the court provided the advisement 44 required by this subdivision, the defendant shall be presumed not to 45 have received the required advisement. If the court fails to so advise 46 the defendant, and he or she later at any time shows that his or her 47 plea and conviction may have or has had one of the enumerated conse-
48 quences, even if the defendant has already been deported from the United 49 States, the court, on the defendant's motion, shall vacate the judgment 50 and permit the defendant to withdraw the plea of guilty or admission or 51 sufficient facts, and enter a plea of not guilty. Absent an official 52 record in the court file that the court provided the advisement as 53 prescribed in this section, the defendant shall be presumed not to have 54 received advisement. An advisement previously or subsequently provided 55 to the defendant during another plea colloquy shall not satisfy the 56 advisement required by this section, nor shall it be used to presume the defendant understood the plea of guilty, or admission to sufficient facts he or she seeks to vacate and would have the consequence of deportation, removal, exclusion from admission to the United States or denial of naturalization. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the court, in the sound exercise of its discretion from setting aside the judgment of conviction and permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her plea. The defendant shall not be required at any time during the proceedings or at the time of the plea to disclose to the court his or her legal status in the United States.

§ 6. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.
