AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to prohibiting certain check cashing fees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 9-h of the banking law, as added by chapter 90 of 2 the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 9-h. Imposition of service charges prohibited. 1. No banking organ-
4 ization shall impose any service charge with respect to any deposit
5 account as a result of the loss of a check or money which is properly 6 deposited with the banking organization by delivery to an employee of 7 the banking organization for credit to the deposit account and for which 8 a written receipt is issued by the employee.

9 2. No banking organization shall impose, or seek to impose, any 10 service charge, or collect any fee, for the cashing of a check or draft 11 drawn on an account at such banking organization, from a person to whom 12 such check or draft is payable, regardless of whether or not such person 13 to whom such check or draft is payable is a customer or account holder 14 of the banking organization upon which such check or draft is drawn.
15 Nothing in this subdivision shall require a banking organization to cash 16 a check or a draft where the account from which such check or draft is 17 payable does not maintain sufficient funds to pay such check or draft.
18 Nothing in this subdivision shall further prohibit any banking organiza-
19 tion from charging any account holder any service charge for the cashing 20 of a check or a draft. Nothing in this subdivision shall additionally be 21 deemed to prevent any banking organization from requesting to examine 22 from any person seeking to cash a check or a draft drawn on such banking 23 organization, for sufficient identification necessary to properly iden-24 tify such person as the person to whom the check or draft is payable.
25 For purposes of this section, a valid and up to date driver's license,
