Introduced by Sen. GOLDEN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to allowing members of the Nassau County auxiliary police force to possess a police baton when authorized by the police commissioner of such county

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision b of section 265.20 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 75 of the laws of 1983 and as relettered by chapter 376 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

b. Section 265.01 of this article shall not apply to possession of that type of billy commonly known as a "police baton" which is twenty-four to twenty-six inches in length and no more than one and one-quarter inches in thickness by members of an auxiliary police force of a city with a population in excess of one million persons [~~or~~], the county of Suffolk or the county of Nassau when duly authorized by regulation or order issued by the police commissioner of such city or such county respectively. Such regulations shall require training in the use of the police baton including but not limited to the defensive use of the baton and instruction in the legal use of deadly physical force pursuant to article thirty-five of this chapter. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or any other provision of law, possession of such baton shall not be authorized when used intentionally to strike another person except in those situations when the use of deadly physical force is authorized by such article thirty-five.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
