the same service when not delivered via telehealth. An insurer may subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to reasonable utilization management and quality assurance requirements that are consistent with those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth.

- § 3. Subsection (a) of section 4306-g of the insurance law, as added by chapter 6 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) A corporation shall not exclude from coverage a service that is otherwise covered under a contract that provides comprehensive coverage for hospital, medical or surgical care because the service is delivered via telehealth, as that term is defined in subsection (b) of this section; provided, however, that a corporation may exclude from coverage 12 service by a health care provider where the provider is not otherwise 14 covered under the contract. A corporation shall reimburse the tele-15 health provider for covered services delivered via telehealth on the 16 same basis and at the same rate as established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth; and may subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to co-payments, coinsurance or deductibles provided that they are at least as favorable to the insured as those 19 20 established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth. A 21 corporation may subject the coverage of a service delivered via tele-22 health to reasonable utilization management and quality assurance requirements that are consistent with those established for the same 23 24 service when not delivered via telehealth.
 - § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 4406-g of the public health law, as added by chapter 6 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. A health maintenance organization shall not exclude from coverage a service that is otherwise covered under an enrollee contract of a health maintenance organization because the service is delivered via tele-30 health, as that term is defined in subdivision two of this section; 31 provided, however, that a health maintenance organization may exclude 32 from coverage a service by a health care provider where the provider is 33 not otherwise covered under the enrollee contract. A health maintenance organization shall reimburse the telehealth provider for covered 34 35 services delivered via telehealth on the same basis and at the same rate 36 as established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth; and may subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to 38 co-payments, coinsurance or deductibles provided that they are at least as favorable to the enrollee as those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth. A health maintenance organization may 40 41 subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to reasonable 42 utilization management and quality assurance requirements that are consistent with those established for the same service when not deliv-43 44 ered via telehealth.
- 45 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 46 policies and contracts issued, renewed, modified, altered or amended on 47 or after January 1, 2018.
