Introduced by Sen. HANNON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to collaborative programs for health workforce retraining and cross-training

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Subdivisions 3 and 4 of section 2807-g of the public health 2 law, as added by chapter 1 of the laws of 1999, are amended to read as 3 follows:
- 4 3. Eligible organizations shall include health worker unions, general 5 hospitals, long-term care facilities, other health care facilities,
6 health care facilities trade associations, labor-management committees, 7 joint labor-management training funds established pursuant to the 8 provisions of the Federal Taft-Hartley Act, and educational insti-9 tutions. Eligible organizations may include collaborative models with 10 certified home health agencies, licensed home care service agencies, 11 long term home health care programs and/or hospices for cross-training 12 and cross-utilization of facility nursing, therapy, social work and 13 other direct care personnel to meet patient and community needs in the 14 changing health care system.
- 15 4. Eligible programs shall include programs which provide one or more 16 of the following services in connection with training an eligible worker 17 to: (i) obtain a new position, (ii) continue to meet the requirements of 18 an existing position, or (iii) otherwise meet the requirements of the 19 changing health care industry: (a) assessments to help determine train-20 ing needs; (b) remediation, including preparation in English for speak-21 ers or writers of other languages, instruction in basic reading or math-22 ematics, or completion of requirements for a general equivalency diploma
23 (GED); (c) basic skills development; (d) reorientation; [~~and~~] (e) skills 24 and educational enhancement, including, where appropriate, the provision 25 of college level or college degree course work; and (f) cross-training 26 with home care and hospice for the provision of nursing, therapy, social 27 work and/or other direct care services in facility and community
28 settings. To the extent that an eligible program is providing services
