STATE OF NEW YORK

8701

IN SENATE

May 10, 2018

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to establish a task force to study school start times

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. a. A task force is hereby established to study the feasibility of all middle schools and high schools beginning their school day at 8:30 a.m. or later.

b. The task force shall:

(i) study the feasibility of all New York state middle schools and high schools beginning their school day at 8:30 a.m. or later;

(ii) determine the amount of New York state middle schools and high schools that currently begin their school day before 8:30 a.m. and those that begin after, in addition to:

(1) the socio-economic environment of such schools; and

(2) the logistical justifications such schools may have for their start time;

(iii) study data on sleep deprivation of middle school and high school students, and the effect of school start times on such sleep deprivation; and

(iv) determine if any encumbrances exist that would inhibit the department of education from implementing such a measure, such as:

(1) union-related contracts or local regulations;

(2) school bus and logistical issues; and

(3) after-school sports and activities.

c. No later than one year after the effective date of this act, the task force shall report its findings to the governor and the legislature, as described under subdivision b this section.

§ 2. a. The task force shall be comprised of:

(i) two members appointed by the governor;

(ii) two members appointed by the temporary president of the senate;

(iii) two members appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and

(iv) one member appointed by the commissioner of the department of education.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14782-01-8

b. One of the appointments by the governor shall serve as chairperson of the task force.

c. The members of the task force shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their services.

d. All departments, divisions, bureaus, commissions, districts or agencies of the state or any political subdivisions thereof shall, at the request of the chairperson, provide the task force with such facilities, assistance and data as will enable the task force to carry out its powers and duties.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.