8736--A

IN SENATE

May 10, 2018

Introduced by Sens. YOUNG, LANZA, PHILLIPS, AMEDORE, FELDER, FUNKE, GALLIVAN, GRIFFO, HELMING, JACOBS, LITTLE, MARCELLINO, MURPHY, ORTT, RANZENHOFER, RITCHIE, ROBACH, SERINO, SEWARD -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to establishing the New York child victim reconciliation and compensation fund; to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the statute of limitations for sex offenses committed against a child; to amend the social services law, in relation to the reporting of child abuse; to amend the business corporation law, the not-for-profit corporation law, the religious corporations law and the cooperative corporations law, in relation to child protection and criminal history searches; and to amend part J of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003 amending the county law and other laws relating to fees collected, in relation to providing for the reimbursement of not-for-profit corporations for fees collected for criminal history searches by the office of court administration

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The Legislature hereby finds that a 2 number of individuals within the state have been unable to seek redress
3 for sexual abuse suffered as a child. Due to the unique nature of child 4 sexual abuse and fears of reprisal, child victims often suffer for years 5 in silence and are often unable to comprehend the fact that they have 6 been victimized. This can lead to repression of the abuse and often 7 results in the victim's confusion, anger and associated difficulties 8 later in life. Due to the nature of abuse a victim has been subject to, 9 and their perceived or actual inability to pursue legal action at the 10 time of the abuse, many victims have been psychologically unable to file 11 a civil litigation claim within the requisite statute of limitations.
12 Due to the amount of time that may have transpired since the instance or 13 instances of abuse, the claim may no longer be pursued through typical litigation. In some instances, the sexual abuser may now be impoverished, unavailable, unable to be located, or may have passed away, making it impossible or impractical for the victim to seek redress through the court system. In order to afford those victims an opportunity to seek the redress due to them, the legislature hereby establishes a New York child victim reconciliation and compensation fund, which is intended to provide assistance to those who were sexually abused as children.

§ 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new article 17 to read as follows:
