1 (e) The department shall provide technical assistance and data to the 2 commission as may be necessary for the commission to carry out its 3 responsibilities pursuant to this section.

4 2. Duties and responsibilities of the commission. (a) The commission
5 shall be tasked with developing and recommending instruction that amends
6 the current civics curriculum as part of New York's education curric-
7 ulum, which shall include but shall not be limited to, the New York
8 state constitution, state and local government, civic literacy, communi-
9 ty issues, methods of public participation, and the rights and responsi-
10 bilities of citizenship. In furtherance of this goal, the commission 11 shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

12 (i) To survey and review current elementary and secondary education
13 curriculum as it relates to civics instruction and curriculum;

14 (ii) To develop recommendations to amend or include additional curric-
15 ulum and instruction for grades kindergarten through twelve that incor-16 porate civics education curriculum, with a focus on simulation-based 17 approaches, including but not limited to mock trials, moot court, advo-
18 cating for issues students have studied, simulated legislative hearings, 19 and other role-playing exercises that engage students in the democratic 20 process first hand; and

21 (iii) To prepare a report for the governor and legislature regarding 22 its findings and recommendations on current curriculum and incorporating 23 additional instruction on civics education curriculum.

24 (b) The commission shall submit a report within one year of the effec-25 tive date of this section, to the governor and legislature on its find-26 ings and recommendations.

27 3. Civics education curriculum or instruction. (a) The commissioner, 28 in conjunction with other appropriate agencies, shall amend the current 29 civics education curriculum or instruction for school districts based on 30 the recommendations of the commission. The content shall be age appro-31 priate and shall be developed according to the needs and abilities of 32 pupils at successive grade levels in order to provide materials, and 33 information in civics education.

34 (b) Schools may include the above materials as a component of its 35 civics curriculum or any other way the school deems appropriate.

36 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
