9 cial code or article 36-B of the general business law;

Attention: a lawsuit has been filed against you claiming that you owe money for an unpaid consumer debt.

You should go to the court clerk's office at the above address as soon as possible to respond to the lawsuit. You may wish to contact an attorney.

If you do not respond to the lawsuit, the court may enter a money judgment against you. Once entered, a judgment is good and can be used against you for twenty years, and your personal property and money, including a portion of your paycheck and/or bank account, may be taken from you. Also, a judgment will affect your credit score and can affect your ability to rent a home, find a job, or take out a loan.

You CANNOT be arrested or sent to jail for owing a debt.

It is important that you go to the court clerk's office listed above as soon as possible. You should bring this notice and any legal papers you may have received. Additional information can be found at the court system website at: www.nycourts.gov

(b) The face of the envelope shall be addressed to the defendant at the address at which process was served, and shall contain the defendant's name, address (including apartment number) and zip code. The face of the envelope also shall state the appropriate clerk's office as its return address.

(c) The clerk promptly shall mail to the defendant the envelope containing the additional notice set forth in subdivision (a) of this section. No default judgment based on the defendant's failure to answer shall be entered unless there has been compliance with this section, and at least twenty days have elapsed from the date of mailing by the clerk. No default judgment based on the defendant's failure to answer shall be entered if the additional notice is returned to the court as undeliverable. Receipt of the additional notice by the defendant does not confer jurisdiction on the court in the absence of proper service of process.

§ 5. Subdivision (a) of section 3012 of the civil practice law and rules is amended to read as follows:

(a) Service of pleadings. The complaint may be served with the summons, except that in an action arising out of a consumer credit transaction, the complaint shall be served with the summons. A subsequent

1 pleading asserting new or additional claims for relief shall be served 2 upon a party who has not appeared in the manner provided for service of 3 a summons. In any other case, a pleading shall be served in the manner
4 provided for service of papers generally. Service of an answer or reply 5 shall be made within twenty days after service of the pleading to which 6 it responds.

7 § 6. Rule 3016 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 8 adding a new subdivision (j) to read as follows:

9 (j) Consumer credit transactions. In an action arising out of a 10 consumer credit transaction where a purchaser, borrower or debtor is a 11 defendant, the contract or other written instrument on which the action 12 is based shall be attached to the complaint and the following informa-13 tion shall be set forth in the complaint:

14 1. The name of the original creditor;

15 2. The last four digits of the original account number;

16 3. The date and amount of the last payment;

17 4. If the complaint contains a cause of action based on an account 18 stated, the date that the final statement of account was mailed to the 19 defendant;

20 5. An itemization of the amount sought, by (i) principal; (ii) finance 21 charge or charges; (iii) fees imposed by the original creditor; (iv) 22 collection costs; (v) attorney's fees; (vi) interest; and (vii) any 23 other fees and charges. The term "finance charge" means a finance charge
24 as defined in Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. § 226.4;

25 6. Whether the plaintiff is the original creditor. If the plaintiff is 26 not the original creditor, the complaint shall also state (i) the date
27 on which the debt was sold or assigned to the plaintiff; (ii) the name 28 of each previous owner of the account and the date on which the debt was 29 assigned to that owner; and (iii) the amount due at the time of the sale 30 or assignment of the debt by the original creditor; and

31 7. Any matters required to be stated with particularity pursuant to 32 rule 3015 of this article.

33 § 7. Subdivision (e) of rule 3211 of the civil practice law and rules, 34 as amended by chapter 616 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as 35 follows:

36 (e) Number, time and waiver of objections; motion to plead over. At 37 any time before service of the responsive pleading is required, a party 38 may move on one or more of the grounds set forth in subdivision (a) of 39 this rule, and no more than one such motion shall be permitted. Any 40 objection or defense based upon a ground set forth in paragraphs one,
41 three, four, five and six of subdivision (a) of this rule is waived
42 unless raised either by such motion or in the responsive pleading. A 43 motion based upon a ground specified in paragraph two, seven or ten of 44 subdivision (a) of this rule may be made at any subsequent time or in a 45 later pleading, if one is permitted; in any action other than an action
46 arising out of a consumer credit transaction where a purchaser, borrower 47 or debtor is a defendant, an objection that the summons and complaint, 48 summons with notice, or notice of petition and petition was not properly 49 served is waived if, having raised such an objection in a pleading, the 50 objecting party does not move for judgment on that ground within sixty 51 days after serving the pleading, unless the court extends the time upon 52 the ground of undue hardship. The foregoing sentence shall not apply in 53 any proceeding under subdivision one or two of section seven hundred 54 eleven of the real property actions and proceedings law. The papers in 55 opposition to a motion based on improper service shall contain a copy of 56 the proof of service, whether or not previously filed. An objection

1 based upon a ground specified in paragraph eight or nine of subdivision
2 (a) of this rule is waived if a party moves on any of the grounds set 3 forth in subdivision (a) of this rule without raising such objection or 4 if, having made no objection under subdivision (a) of this rule, he or 5 she does not raise such objection in the responsive pleading.

6 § 8. Subdivision (f) of section 3215 of the civil practice law and 7 rules, as amended by chapter 453 of the laws of 2006, is amended and a 8 new subdivision (j) is added to read as follows:

9 (f) Proof. On any application for judgment by default, the applicant
10 shall file proof of service of the summons and the complaint, or a 11 summons and notice served pursuant to subdivision (b) of rule 305 or 12 subdivision (a) of rule 316 of this chapter, and proof of the facts
13 constituting the claim, the default and the amount due by affidavit made 14 by the party, or where the state of New York is the plaintiff, by affi-15 davit made by an attorney from the office of the attorney general who 16 has or obtains knowledge of such facts through review of state records
17 or otherwise. Where a verified complaint has been served, it may be used 18 as the affidavit of the facts constituting the claim and the amount due;
19 in such case, an affidavit as to the default shall be made by the party
20 or the party's attorney. In an action arising out of a consumer credit 21 transaction, if the plaintiff is not the original creditor, the appli-22 cant shall include: (1) an affidavit by the original creditor of the 23 facts constituting the debt, the default in payment, the sale or assign-24 ment of the debt, and the amount due at the time of sale or assignment;
25 (2) for each subsequent assignment or sale of the debt to another enti-26 ty, an affidavit of sale of the debt by the debt seller, completed by 27 the seller or assignor; and (3) an affidavit of a witness of the plain-28 tiff, which includes a chain of title of the debt, completed by the 29 plaintiff or plaintiff's witness. When jurisdiction is based on an 30 attachment of property, the affidavit must state that an order of 31 attachment granted in the action has been levied on the property of the 32 defendant, describe the property and state its value. Proof of mailing 33 the notice required by subdivision (g) of this section, where applica-34 ble, shall also be filed.

35 (j) A request for a default judgment entered by the clerk, must be 36 accompanied by an affidavit by the debt collector (who may be the plain-37 tiff or plaintiff's attorney) stating that after reasonable inquiry, he 38 or she has reason to believe that the statute of limitations has not 39 expired.

40 § 9. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 41 section 7516 to read as follows:

42 § 7516. Confirmation of an award based on a consumer credit trans-
43 action. In any proceeding under section 7510 of this article to confirm 44 an award based on a consumer credit transaction, the party seeking to 45 confirm the award shall plead the actual terms and conditions of the 46 agreement to arbitrate. The party shall attach to its petition (a) the 47 agreement to arbitrate; (b) the demand for arbitration or notice of 48 intention to arbitrate, with proof of service; and (c) the arbitration
49 award, with proof of service. If the award does not contain a statement 50 of the claims submitted for arbitration, of the claims ruled upon by the 51 arbitrator, and of the calculation of figures used by the arbitrator in 52 arriving at the award, then the petition shall contain such a statement.
53 The court shall not grant confirmation of an award based on a consumer 54 credit transaction unless the party seeking to confirm the award has 55 complied with this section.

1 § 10. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
2 ing the date on which it shall have become a law, except that section 3 three of this act shall take effect on the one hundred fiftieth day
4 after this act shall have become a law.
