Introduced by Sen. MARCHIONE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the highway law in relation to designating a portion of the state highway system as the "Educators' Highway"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 344-i to read as follows:

§ 344-i. Portion of the state highway system to be designated as the "Educators' Highway". The portion of state route one hundred fifty-one in the town of East Greenbush, county of Rensselaer, commencing from the intersection with state route four, continuing west on state route one hundred fifty-one to the East Greenbush town border shall be designated and known as the "Educators' Highway".

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as designated pursuant to section one of this act. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the designation called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
