AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to when third-party practice is allowed

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 1007 of the civil practice law and rules, as 2 amended by chapter 216 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 § 1007. When third-party practice allowed. After the service of [~~his~~ 5 the answer but no later than ninety days after the completion of exam-6 inations before trial of the parties to the main action, unless 7 consented to by the parties or, upon written application of any of the 8 parties in the main action, the court, in its discretion, extends such 9 time for good cause for the delay, a defendant may [~~proceed against a~~ 10 ~~person not a party who is or may be liable to that defendant for all or~~ 11 ~~part of the plaintiff's claim against that defendant,~~] implead a third 12 party by filing pursuant to section three hundred four of this chapter a 13 third-party summons and complaint with the clerk of the court in the 14 county in which the main action is pending, for which a separate index 15 number shall not be issued but a separate index number fee shall be 16 collected. The third-party summons and complaint and all prior pleadings 17 served in the action shall be served upon such person within one hundred 18 twenty days of the filing. A defendant serving a third-party complaint 19 shall be styled a third-party plaintiff and the person so served shall 20 be styled a third-party defendant. The defendant shall also serve a copy 21 of such third-party complaint upon the plaintiff's attorney simultane-22 ously upon issuance for service of the third-party complaint on the 23 third-party defendant.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of September next 25 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law and shall be 26 applicable to all actions commenced on and after such date.
