6 attributable to personal services performed by such individual from 7 employment, which arise (i) from an employer-employee relationship or 8 (ii) from contributions to a retirement plan which are deductible for 9 federal income tax purposes, to the extent such distributions are used 10 during the taxable year to purchase a policy of long-term care insur-11 ance, as defined in section one thousand one hundred seventeen of the 12 insurance law, for such individual or a dependent of such individual.
13 Such distributions shall include distributions from an individual

2 care insurance, provided that any amount subtracted from federal 3 adjusted gross income pursuant to paragraph three-d of section six 4 hundred twelve of this article shall be subtracted from the amount of 5 premium paid during the taxable year and the twenty percent credit shall 6 be based upon such recomputed amount of premium paid. In order to qual-

14 such year or years.

15 (2) Nonresidents and part-year residents. In the case of a nonresident 16 taxpayer or a part-year resident taxpayer, the credit determined under 17 this subsection shall be limited to the amount determined by multiplying
18 the amount of such credit by the New York source fraction as set forth

20 article. The credit as so limited shall be applied as provided in para-21 graph one of this subsection, provided that any amount subtracted from 22 federal adjusted gross income pursuant to paragraph three-d of section 23 six hundred twelve of this article and section six hundred thirty-one of 24 this article shall be subtracted from the amount of premium paid during 25 the taxable year and the twenty percent credit shall be based upon such 26 recomputed amount of premium paid.

27 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 28 years commencing on January first in the year in which this act shall 29 take effect and all subsequent taxable years.
