AN ACT in relation to extending the renewal of driver's licenses, non-driver identification cards and inspections of motor vehicles for three months

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law: (a) the date on which the renewal of any driver's license required pursuant to title 5 of the vehicle and traffic law or any non-driver identification card issued pursuant to article 17-A of title 4 of such law expires; and (b) the date on which the periodic inspection of any motor vehicle required pursuant to article 5 of title 3 of the vehicle and traffic law expires, shall be extended for a period of three months from the date such license, non-driver identification card or periodic inspection expires; provided that such expiration occurs within the six month period beginning on March 10, 2020.

§ 2. The commissioner of motor vehicles is authorized to extend: (a) the date on which the renewal of any driver's license required pursuant to title 5 of the vehicle and traffic law or any non-driver identification card issued pursuant to article 17-A of title 4 of such law expires; and (b) the date on which the periodic inspection of any motor vehicle required pursuant to article 5 of title 3 of the vehicle and traffic law expires, if, in the interest of the health and safety of the public due to the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic, the commissioner deems such extension to be necessary.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after March 10, 2020.
