10189--A

IN ASSEMBLY

March 24, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. ORTIZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the attendance of minors upon full day instruction and the conditions under which districts, including the city school district of the city of New York, are entitled to an apportionment of state aid and the closure of schools due in response to the novel coronavirus, COVID-19

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 3604 of the education law, as amended by chapter 605 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

7. No district shall be entitled to any portion of such school moneys on such apportionment unless the report of the trustees or board of education for the preceding school year shall show that the public schools were actually in session in the district and taught by a qualified teacher or by successive qualified teachers or by qualified teachers for not less than one hundred eighty days. The moneys payable to a school district pursuant to section thirty-six hundred nine-a of this part in the current year shall be reduced by one one-hundred eightieth of the district's total foundation aid for the base year for each day less than one hundred eighty days that the schools of the district were actually in session, except that the commissioner may disregard such reduction in the apportionment of public money~~[-]~~: (i) for any day or days on which session had been previously scheduled but the superintendent was required to close the school or schools due to a properly executed declaration of a state or local state of emergency pursuant to article two-B of the executive law; or (ii) for up to five days if he or she finds that the schools of the district were not in session for one hundred eighty days because of extraordinarily adverse weather conditions, impairment of heating facilities, insufficiency of water supply, shortage of fuel, lack of electricity, natural gas leakage, unacceptable levels of chemical substances, a credible threat to student safety as

1 reasonably determined by a lead school official or the destruction of a 2 school building either in whole or in part, and if, further, the commis-
3 sioner finds that such district cannot make up such days of instruction 4 by using for the secondary grades all scheduled vacation days which 5 occur prior to the first scheduled regents examination day in June, and 6 for the elementary grades all scheduled vacation days which occur prior 7 to the last scheduled regents examination day in June; or (iii) for any 8 day or days in the two thousand nineteen -- two thousand twenty school 9 year on which session had been previously scheduled but the chancellor
10 of the city school district of the city of New York or the superinten-11 dent of a district closed the school or schools due to a determination 12 by the chancellor or superintendent that it was in the best interest of 13 public health or safety of the school district to close the school or 14 schools in response to the novel coronavirus, COVID-19. For the purposes 15 of this subdivision, "scheduled vacation days" shall mean days on which 16 the schools of the district are not in session and for which no prohibi-17 tion exists in subdivision eight of this section for them to be in 18 session.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
