AN ACT in relation to the convening of meetings by county election committees during the COVID-19 pandemic; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2-112 of the election law or any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, county committees shall meet and organize as provided in section 2-112 of the election law between 100 and 120 days after the Governor has declared that the social distancing restrictions implemented in response to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic state disaster emergency declared by Executive Order Number 202 of 2020 have been eased sufficiently to allow meetings in excess of 500 persons, or in cities with a population in excess of one million, 1000 persons, to be legally convened. Such county committees, elected and organized prior to January 1, 2020 and their previously elected officers, rules and members, shall continue to possess and exercise all legal authority until after such subsequent organization as provided in this act.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed June 30, 2021.
