7 same taxable year, (ii) reduced by the credit permitted under subsection

10 amount of tax credit under this paragraph, in calculating the earned 11 income tax credit allowed under section thirty-two of the internal 12 revenue code, the phaseout amount as referenced in section 32(b)(2)(A) 13 of the internal revenue code shall be read as twenty four thousand nine 14 hundred sixty dollars instead of eleven thousand six hundred ten dollars 15 and such phaseout amount shall be subject to adjustments made in section ninety-five and before two thousand, (iv) twenty-two and one-half percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand, (v) twenty-five percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand one, (vi) twenty-seven and one-half percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand two, ~~[and]~~ (vii) thirty percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand three, (viii) thirty-five percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty, and (ix) forty percent for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty-one and thereafter. For taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty and thereafter, in the case of an eligible individual with no qualifying children, the credit percentage shall be fifteen and three-tenths to determine the amount of the earned income tax credit referenced in section 32(b)(1) of the internal revenue code and the earned income amount and the phaseout amount of such individual shall be determined as if such earned income amount and phaseout amount as referenced in section 32(b)(2)(A) of the internal revenue code are equal to the amount allowed for an eligible individual with one qualifying child as such amounts are referenced in such paragraph. Provided further, for the purpose of this subsection, an eligible individual shall be an individual who has attained nineteen years of age as opposed to twenty-five years of age, irrespective of the eligibility referenced in section 32(c)(1)(A)(ii)(II) of the internal revenue code. Provided, however, that if the reversion event, as defined in this paragraph, occurs, the applicable percentage shall be twenty percent for taxable years ending on or after the date on which the reversion event occurred. § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 679 to read as follows:

§ 679. Advance payment of earned income credit. (a) General rule. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the commissioner shall provide for the prepayment of the earned income credit to qualifying employees.

(b) Earned income eligibility certificate. For purposes of this article, an earned income eligibility certificate is a statement furnished by an employee to the commissioner which:

(1) certifies that the employee will be eligible to receive an earned income credit or an enhanced earned income credit provided pursuant to subsection (d) or (d-1) of section six hundred six of this article for the taxable year;

(2) certifies that the employee does not have an earned income eligibility certificate in effect for the taxable year with respect to the payment of wages by another employer; and

1 (3) states whether the employee's spouse has an earned income eligi-
2 bility certificate in effect. For purposes of this section, a certifi-3 cate shall be treated as being in effect with respect to a spouse if 4 such certificate will be in effect on the first status determination 5 date following the date on which the other eligible spouse furnishes the 6 statement in question.

7 (c) Earned income advance amount. Four advanced payments shall be made 8 to such qualifying employees. An estimated annual tax credit shall be 9 determined by the commissioner in advance of the first payment and shall 10 be subject to adjustment due to changes in employment or family status
11 over the course of the year. Prior to disbursement, the commissioner 12 shall ensure that the qualifying employee's status has not changed. The 13 first three advanced payments shall be made during the taxable year and 14 shall be twenty percent of the anticipated credit. The fourth advanced 15 payment shall be made after the tax year is over and shall be adjusted 16 to match the actual credit due eligible. Such payments shall, to the 17 extent practicable, be made available via direct deposit and via elec-
18 tronic benefit transfer (EBT) card.

19 (d) Form and contents of certificate. Earned income eligibility 20 certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as the 21 commissioner may determine and prescribe.

22 (e) Notification. (1) The commissioner shall notify all taxpayers who 23 have received a refund of the credit pursuant to subsection (d) or (d-1)
24 of section six hundred six of this article based on the most recent tax 25 return or record in writing of the availability of earned income advance
26 amounts under this section. Such written or electronic notification
27 shall include a clearly labeled section or withholding forms and a sepa-

29 income credit in the six most common languages spoken by individuals in 30 this state.

31 (2) The commissioner shall provide information of the availability of 32 earned income advance amounts under this section to tax preparers,
33 accountants and organizations that assist individuals in tax prepara-
34 tion. Such information shall be distributed to qualifying individuals.

35 (f) Coordination with advance payments of earned income credit. (1) If 36 any payment is made to the individual by the department under this 37 section during any calendar year, the tax imposed by this chapter for 38 the individual's last taxable year beginning in such calendar year shall 39 be increased by the aggregate amount of such payments.

40 (2) If an individual establishes that he or she is requesting and 41 receiving payments under this section in good-faith by establishing that 42 he or she properly claimed payments under this section in the prior year
43 and that he or she has not experienced a substantial change in circum-
44 stances such that he or she has a reasonable expectation of eligibility 45 in the current year, then paragraph one of this subsection shall not 46 apply.

47 (3) Any increase in tax under this subsection shall not be treated as 48 tax imposed by this chapter for purposes of determining the amount of 49 any credit, other than the credit allowed by subsection (d) or (d-1) of 50 section six hundred six of this article, allowable under this article.

51 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 52 years beginning on or after January 1, 2020.
