§ 5-322.4. Agreements exempting employers from liability for negligence related to the COVID-19 pandemic void and unenforceable. 1. Any provision in any contract, agreement or understanding relating to the employment, hiring or retaining of the services of any person, including but not limited to employees, independent contractors and interns, that exempts the employer or hiring party from liability for damages for personal injury or death caused by or resulting from the employer's negligence in connection with the employer's or hiring party's handling of measures related to the COVID-19 pandemic shall be deemed to be void as against public policy and wholly unenforceable.

2. The provisions of this section shall not preclude an employer or hiring party from requiring indemnification for damages arising out of personal injury or death caused by or resulting from the negligence of a party other than the employee, independent contractor and intern, whether or not the employer or hiring party is partially negligent.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
