IN ASSEMBLY

July 24, 2020

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Hyndman) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to creating the anti-SLAPP act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "anti-SLAPP 2 act".

3 § 2. Subdivisions (c) and (g) of rule 3211 of the civil practice law
4 and rules, subdivision (c) as amended by judicial conference proposal 5 number 4 for the year 1973, subdivision (g) as added by chapter 767 of 6 the laws of 1992, are amended to read as follows:

7 (c) Evidence permitted; immediate trial; motion treated as one for 8 summary judgment. Upon the hearing of a motion made under subdivision 9 (a) ~~[or]~~, (b) or (g), either party may submit any evidence that could 10 properly be considered on a motion for summary judgment. Whether or not 11 issue has been joined, the court, after adequate notice to the parties, 12 may treat the motion as a motion for summary judgment. The court may, 13 when appropriate for the expeditious disposition of the controversy, 14 order immediate trial of the issues raised on the motion.

15 (g) Standards for motions to dismiss in certain cases involving public 16 petition and participation. A motion to dismiss based on paragraph seven 17 of subdivision (a) of this section, in which the moving party has demon-18 strated that the action, claim, cross claim or counterclaim subject to 19 the motion is an action involving public petition and participation as 20 defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section seventy-six-a of 21 the civil rights law, shall be granted unless the party responding to 22 the motion demonstrates that the cause of action has a substantial basis 23 in law or is supported by a substantial argument for an extension, 24 modification or reversal of existing law. Discovery shall be suspended 25 pending a decision on the motion. The court shall grant preference in 26 the hearing of such motion and shall set such hearing date no later than 27 sixty days after the date of service of the motion unless the docket 28 condition of the court requires a later hearing, but in no event shall

1 the hearing occur more than ninety days after service of the motion. If 2 a motion to dismiss is granted the court shall provide for the imposi-
3 tion of costs or other sanctions, including imposition of reasonable 4 attorney's fees.

5 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
