bly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 140.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

3 9. For purposes of this section, "unnecessary delay" shall mean before 4 twenty-four hours or less have expired, commencing at the time of the 5 person being taken into custody by such police officer, or any person 6 acting on behalf of a police officer, even when no arrest number has 7 been issued. The failure or inability of any government agency to 8 fulfill the requirements of this section shall require the immediate

1 been issued by an agency responsible for issuing one. Upon the issuance 2 of any type of appearance ticket, summons or upon the arraignment of any 3 person entered into this registry, any and all data related thereto

6 authorized users shall be limited to defender organizations contracted 7 with cities to represent criminal defendants.

8 § 3. Section 7009 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 9 adding a new subdivision (f) to read as follows:

10 (f) Persons detained for longer than twenty-four hours. For purposes 11 of this article, when a writ of habeas corpus is heard challenging the 12 pre-arraignment detention of a person detained for more than twenty-four 13 hours, there shall be an evidentiary presumption that such detention is 14 unnecessary, and unlawful as defined in section 140.20 of the criminal 15 procedure law, until and unless such presumption is rebutted by clear 16 and convincing evidence that such a delay was actually necessary for 17 each individual petitioner identified in the writ.

18 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
