1 proposed sale, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than [thirty] sixty days from mailing of the notice and a conspicuous 3 statement that unless the claimant pays within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold at public or private sale in a commercially reasonable manner. The notice shall further include the time and place of any public or private sale and it shall state that any person 7 claiming an interest in the goods is entitled to bring a proceeding hereunder within ten days of the service of the notice if he disputes 9 the validity of the lien, or the amount claimed. The notice shall be 10 personally delivered to the occupant, or sent by registered or certified 11 mail to the occupant's last known address, or sent by verified mail and electronic mail to the occupant's last known address. Any notice made 12 13 pursuant to this section and sent by verified mail shall be sent to the 14 last known address provided by the occupant, pursuant to the occupancy 15 agreement, provided further, that if the occupancy agreement states that 16 the occupant has chosen to be contacted via telephone as set forth in subdivision two of this section, such notice shall not be effective 17 unless the owner makes reasonable attempts to contact the occupant via 18 telephone to notify the occupant of the mailing of such notice. Any 19 20 notice made pursuant to this section and sent by electronic mail shall 21 only be effective if: (i) the occupancy agreement states that the occu-22 pant has consented to receive late or lien notices by electronic mail; and (ii) the occupant has provided the occupant's electronic mail 23 24 address in at least two locations within the occupancy agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no owner shall take any action with respect to the enforcement of an owner's lien and no owner's lien shall be enforced by public or private sale of an occupant's goods during the COVID-19 state disaster emergency declared pursuant to executive order number two hundred two of two thousand twenty.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
