date. If mailed, such notice is given when deposited in the United States mail, with postage thereon prepaid, directed to the member at his 3 address as it appears on the record of members, or, if he shall have filed with the secretary of the corporation a written request that notices to him be mailed to some other address, then directed to him at such other address. If sent by facsimile telecommunication or mailed 7 electronically, such notice is given when directed to the member's fax number or electronic mail address as it appears on the record of 9 members, or, to such fax number or other electronic mail address as 10 filed with the secretary of the corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such notice shall not be deemed to have been given electronically 11 (1) if the corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive notices to 12 13 the member by facsimile telecommunication or electronic mail; or (2) the 14 corporation otherwise becomes aware that notice cannot be delivered to 15 the member by facsimile telecommunication or electronic mail. An affidavit of the secretary or other person giving the notice or of a transfer 16 17 agent of the corporation that the notice required by this section has 18 been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of 19 the facts therein stated. Whenever a corporation has more than five 20 hundred members, the notice may be served by publication in a newspaper published in the county in the state in which the principal office of the corporation is located, once a week for three successive weeks next 22 preceding the date of the meeting, provided that the corporation shall 23 also prominently post notice of such meeting on the homepage of any 24 25 website maintained by the corporation continuously from the date of 26 publication through the date of the meeting. A corporation shall send 27 notice of meetings by first class mail to any member who requests in 28 writing that such notices be delivered by such method. 29

- (b) When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary, unless the by-laws require otherwise, to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned and, for the duration of the state disaster emergency declared by executive order two hundred two that began on March seventh, two thousand twenty, or until December thirty-first, two thousand twentyone, whichever is later, the means of electronic communications, if any, by which members may participate in the proceedings of the meeting pursuant to paragraph (a) of section six hundred three of this article are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. However, if after the adjournment the board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record on the new record date entitled to notice under paragraph (a) of this section.
- (c) Nothing required in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall limit, restrict or supersede other forms of voting and participation.
- § 5. Section 28 of the religious corporations law, as added by chapter 122 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:
- § 28. Meetings for the duration of the state disaster emergency declared by executive order two hundred two that began on March seventh, 51 two thousand twenty; electronic communication.
