AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to the termination of leases when a domestic violence victim obtains an order of protection or signed affidavit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of section 227-c of the real prop-2 erty law, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 73 of the laws of 2007 and 3 subdivisions 2 and 3 as amended by chapter 616 of the laws of 2007, are 4 amended to read as follows:

5 1. In any lease or rental agreement covering premises occupied for 6 dwelling purposes, a lessee or tenant for whose benefit any order of 7 protection has been issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, or such 8 lessee or tenant who has obtained a signed affidavit from any lawyer, 9 mental health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an 10 organization serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, 11 police officer or duly sworn officer of the peace shall be permitted to 12 terminate such lease or rental agreement and quit and surrender
13 possession of the leasehold premises, and of the land so leased or occu-14 pied pursuant to the provisions of this section and to be released from 15 any liability to pay to the lessor or owner, rent or other payments in 16 lieu of rent for the time subsequent to the date of termination of such 17 lease in accordance with subdivision two of this section.

18 2. (a) A lessee or tenant for whose benefit any order of protection 19 has been issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, or such lessee or 20 tenant who has obtained a signed affidavit from any lawyer, mental 21 health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an organization
22 serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, police officer 23 or duly sworn officer of the peace may, on ten days' notice to the 24 lessor or owner of the premises occupied by such person, and to any co-tenants of such lessee or tenant, seek an order of the court that issued such order of protection, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, authorizing such lessee or tenant to terminate such party's lease or rental agreement. Provided, however, that if the lessee or tenant for whose benefit any order of protection or signed affidavit has been issued is co-tenants with the person covered by such order of protection or signed affidavit, such notice need not be provided to such co-tenant. Such court shall hear any such application at any time that the order of protection remains in effect, or at any other time as determined by the court, whether or not the action in which it was issued remains open.

(b) The court shall issue such order only if the applicant lessee or tenant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that:

(i) notwithstanding the existence of an order of protection, or a signed affidavit from any lawyer, mental health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an organization serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, police officer or duly sworn officer of the peace, there continues to exist a substantial risk of physical or emotional harm to such person or such person's child from the party covered by the order of protection if the parties remain in the premises and that relocation will substantially reduce such risk;

(ii) the lessee or tenant attempted to secure the voluntary consent of the lessor or owner to terminate the lease or rental agreement and the lessor or owner refused to permit termination; and

(iii) the lessee or tenant is acting in good faith.

(c) The court shall condition the granting of the order on the following terms:

(i) All sums due under the lease or rental agreement through the termination date of such lease or rental agreement are timely paid;

(ii) That upon termination:

(a) the premises are delivered to the lessor or owner free of all tenants and occupants and in accordance with the terms of the lease relating to delivery of the premises at the termination of the lease, provided that the applicant shall not be responsible for ensuring that the person covered by the order of protection, or the person covered by a signed affidavit from any lawyer, mental health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an organization serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, police officer or duly sworn officer of the peace, is not present; or

(b) if there are also tenants on the lease other than the applicant tenant and the person covered by the order of protection, or the person covered by a signed affidavit from any lawyer, mental health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an organization serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, police officer or duly sworn officer of the peace, the court shall not, except upon consent of such additional tenants, terminate the entire co-tenancy, but the court may sever the co-tenancy, in which case the applicant tenant shall vacate by the termination date; and

(iii) That adjustments be made through to termination date for any rent or other payments made in advance or which have accrued by the terms of such lease or rental agreement.

(d) The order shall specify the termination date which shall be no earlier than thirty days and no later than one hundred fifty days after the due date of the next rental payment subsequent to the date such order is served on the lessor or owner.

1 (e) The order shall be served on the lessor or owner and any co-ten-2 ants by the court or in the manner directed by the court.

3 3. The lessor or owner and any co-tenants shall be afforded an oppor-
4 tunity to be heard by the court and express opposition to the issuance 5 or terms of a termination order. If the court is not satisfied that 6 there has been adequate notice of the application to the lessor, owner, 7 or any co-tenants, it may briefly adjourn the matter or take other steps
8 to provide for such notice, but shall not direct that the applicant
9 lessee or tenant make personal service of the application, or of a 10 termination order, upon a co-tenant covered by the order of protection 11 or a co-tenant covered by a signed affidavit from any lawyer, mental 12 health professional, affiliated care manager on staff of an organization
13 serving victims of domestic violence, elected official, police officer 14 or duly sworn officer of the peace.

15 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
