AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to the minimum wage

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 652 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 38 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

2. Existing wage orders. The minimum wage orders in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this article.

Such minimum wage orders shall be modified by the commissioner to increase all monetary amounts specified therein in the same proportion as the increase in the hourly minimum wage as provided in subdivision one of this section, including the amounts specified in such minimum wage orders as allowances for gratuities, and when furnished by the employer to its employees, for meals, lodging, apparel and other such items, services and facilities, except that the hourly cash wage for food service workers and service employees who receive tips shall not be less than the cash wage as provided in subdivision four of this section and the maximum credit for tips in minimum wage orders shall be modified so that such credit, when combined with this cash wage, is equal to the minimum wage. All amounts so modified shall be rounded off to the nearest five cents. The modified orders shall be promulgated by the commissioner without a public hearing, and without reference to a wage board, and shall become effective on the effective date of such increases in the minimum wage except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, notwithstanding any other provision of this article.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

$12.50 per hour on and after December 31, 2023.
Beginning on December thirty-first, two thousand twenty-four, the cash wage payable to a food service worker or service worker under this paragraph shall be not less than the wage established pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision one of this section.

§ 3. Subdivision 2 of section 653 of the labor law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(2) The commissioner shall, within six months after enactment of any change in the statutory minimum wage set forth in subdivision one of section six hundred fifty-two of this article, appoint a wage board to inquire and report and recommend any changes to wage orders governing wages payable to food service workers. Such wage board shall be established consistent with the provisions of subdivision one of section six hundred fifty-five of this article, except the representatives of the employees shall be selected upon the nomination of the state American Federation of Labor/Congress of Industrial Organizations; and provided, further, that the representatives of the employers shall be selected upon the nomination of the New York State Business Council. [~~Any wage order authorizing a lesser wage than the previously and statutorily mandated minimum wage for such employees shall be reviewed by the wage board to ascertain at what level such wage order is sufficient to provide adequate maintenance and to protect the health and livelihood of employees subject to such a wage order after a statutory increase in the mandated minimum wage.~~] Notwithstanding section six hundred fifty-five of this article, a wage order under this subdivision shall not authorize a lesser wage than the previously and statutorily mandated minimum wage for such employees.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
