1 Section 1. Section 192-e of the agriculture and markets law is amended 2 by adding two new subdivisions 6-a and 6-b to read as follows:

3 6-a. a. Definitions. For the purposes of this subdivision:

5 receptacle, fixed in place, that is intended to be used to store lique-

13 result in an individual being placed in imminent danger of death or 14 injury, or may result in a building structure and/or its fixtures being 15 at risk of significant damage due to lack of residential heat caused by 16 the lack of sufficient liquified petroleum gas to produce residential 17 heat;

1 petroleum gas to such tank for use by a residential customer or the 2 customer's agent or agents; and

3 (iv) "temporary emergency supplier" shall mean a person, firm, limited 4 liability company or corporation that fills, refills or otherwise deliv-5 ers liquefied petroleum gas into a liquefied petroleum gas tank it does 6 not own, where such tank is subject to an existing contract between a 7 regular supplier and their customer.

8 b. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, 9 when a qualifying emergency is in effect, a residential customer who has 10 a contract with a regular supplier to fill a liquefied petroleum gas 11 tank reasonably believes the amount of liquefied petroleum gas in their 12 tank will be insufficient to meet the customer's heating needs, the 13 customer shall make a good faith effort to procure delivery of liquefied 14 petroleum gas from such regular supplier. If the regular supplier is 15 unable to make a scheduled delivery or fulfill the customer's good faith 16 request, directly or through another supplier, for delivery within twen-
17 ty-four hours, the customer may arrange to have a temporary emergency 18 supplier fill, refill or otherwise deliver liquefied petroleum gas into 19 such liquefied petroleum gas tank, provided that the temporary emergency 20 supplier ensures that such tank, and the devices and pipelines operated 21 in connection with such tank, have been inspected and certified as 22 required by law and all applicable regulations.

23 c. When a temporary emergency supplier delivers liquefied petroleum 24 gas to a residential customer pursuant to this subdivision, neither such 25 temporary emergency supplier nor such customer's regular supplier may 26 charge any penalty or fee in addition to any filling, refilling or 27 delivery fees that are usually charged to other customers in the course 28 of business under circumstances when paragraph b of this subdivision is 29 not applicable.

30 d. Any contract executed subsequent to the effective date of this 31 subdivision for the supply of liquefied petroleum gas to a residential 32 customer shall include provisions relating to delivery and fees pursuant 33 to paragraphs b and c of this subdivision if applicable.

34 e. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to restrict a liquefied 35 petroleum gas customer who owns a liquefied petroleum gas tank from 36 procuring such gas from any supplier.

37 6-b. The commissioner, in cooperation with the department of law, 38 shall develop a "propane consumer bill of rights" consistent with this 39 section to address the rights of consumers who enter into contracts for 40 the provision and delivery of liquefied petroleum gas, including the 41 right of customers to purchase liquefied petroleum gas from temporary 42 suppliers pursuant to subdivision six-a of this section. Such bill of 43 rights shall be provided by every regular supplier of liquefied petrole-
44 um gas to the consumer when a contract is executed, and then annually 45 while a contract remains in effect and the department shall post such 46 bill of rights on its website.

47 § 2. The commissioner of agriculture and markets shall develop regu-48 lations consistent with subdivisions six-a and six-b of section 192-e of 49 the agriculture and markets law for the implementation thereof includ-
50 ing, but not limited to, the responsibilities of temporary emergency 51 suppliers and regular suppliers for the safe inspection, testing and 52 filling of liquefied petroleum gas tanks, and any devices and pipelines
53 operated in connection with such tanks, pursuant to such subdivisions 54 and the need for appropriate liability insurance coverage for such 55 suppliers.

1     § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 2 it shall have become a law; provided, however that the provisions of 3 this act shall take effect immediately upon the occurrence of a qualify-4 ing emergency for any customer residing within the geographic limits of 5 such qualifying emergency as declared by federal, state or local author-6 ities or as otherwise determined by federal or state authorities or the 7 commissioner; and provided that the commissioner of agriculture and 8 markets shall notify the legislative bill drafting commission upon the 9 occurrence of a qualifying emergency, if such qualifying emergency 10 occurs within the first 120 days after this act shall have become a law,
11 in order that the commission may maintain an accurate and timely effec-
12 tive data base of the official text of the laws of the state of New York 13 in furtherance of effectuating the provisions of section 44 of the 14 legislative law and section 70-b of the public officers law. Effective 15 immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regu-
16 lation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective 17 date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.
