AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the empire state child credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 1 of subsection (c-1) of section 606 of the tax law, as amended by section 1 of part P of chapter 59 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

2

(1) A resident taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as provided herein equal to the greater of one hundred dollars times the number of qualifying children of the taxpayer or the applicable percentage of the child tax credit allowed the taxpayer under section twenty-four of the internal revenue code for the same taxable year for each qualifying child. Provided, however, in the case of a taxpayer whose federal adjusted 10 gross income exceeds the applicable threshold amount set forth by section 24(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the credit shall only be 11 12 equal to the applicable percentage of the child tax credit allowed the 13 taxpayer under section 24 of the Internal Revenue Code for each qualify-14 ing child. For the purposes of this subsection, a qualifying child shall 15 be a child who meets the definition of qualified child under section 24(c) of the internal revenue code [and is at least four years of age]. 16 The applicable percentage shall be thirty-three percent. For purposes of 17 this subsection, any reference to section 24 of the Internal Revenue 18 Code shall be a reference to such section as it existed immediately 19 20 prior to the enactment of Public Law 115-97.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2019.
