1 or when a vacancy exists. All designations shall be made first from those named in the original list filed if those designated are found qualified. If a person has been listed on the original or supplemental 3 list for three consecutive years and has not served as an election inspector, poll clerk or election coordinator during those three years, then the political party submitting the list shall obtain and submit a 7 written affirmation from the person stating that they are willing and available to serve as an election inspector, poll clerk or election 9 coordinator. If the political party does not submit such a written 10 affirmation along with the list, then such person shall be stricken from 11 the original and supplemental lists.

5. If a political party shall fail to submit a list or the list shall be exhausted, the board of elections shall request from the appropriate political party an original or supplemental list. If after ten days no list is filed by that party, the board of elections [may] shall appoint 16 qualified persons, enrolled members of the political party in default, to act as election inspectors, poll clerks or election coordinators.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
