IN ASSEMBLY

January 17, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. M. G. MILLER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to dedicated crossing times for pedestrians

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 19-196.1 to read as follows:

§ 19-196.1 Dedicated crossing times for pedestrians. a. The commissioner shall direct the implementation of dedicated crossing times for pedestrians on all major thoroughfares in the city of New York.

b. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Dedicated crossing times" shall mean intervals of specific duration, signaled by traffic-control devices, during which all vehicular traffic is stopped and pedestrians may walk across major thoroughfares. The commissioner shall determine the appropriate duration of intervals at each major thoroughfare.

(2) "Major thoroughfares" shall mean any street or intersection that experiences high traffic volume, as determined by the commissioner.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
