§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 1193 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

(h) No sentence of impoundment may be imposed pursuant to this subdivision until the owner of the motor vehicle used in the offense has been notified that impoundment may be ordered and they are given a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate why such sentence should not be imposed. In exercising its sentencing discretion in any case where the owner of the motor vehicle used in the offense is not the defendant, the court shall consider (1) the due diligence exercised by the owner to prevent the unlawful use of the motor vehicle by the defendant, and (2) the undue hardship to the owner in the event of a sentence of impoundment.

§ 3. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1193-a to read as follows:

§ 1193-a. Impoundment and redemption of vehicles. 1. When a sentence of impoundment is imposed by the court pursuant to subdivision one of section eleven hundred ninety-three of this article, the owner shall surrender the vehicle used in the offense to an officer of the local authority, who shall remove or arrange for the removal of the vehicle to a garage, automobile pound, or other place of safety where it shall remain impounded for the time imposed by the sentencing court. The vehicle shall be entered into the New York statewide police information network as an impounded vehicle.

2. A motor vehicle so impounded shall be in the custody of the local authority and shall not be released until:

(a) The expiration of the impoundment period imposed by the sentencing court.

(b) Payment has been made for the reasonable costs of removal, storage and processing of the motor vehicle. The registered owner of the vehicle shall be responsible for such payment provided, however, that if he or she was not the operator at the time of the offense he or she shall have a cause of action against such operator to recover such costs.

(c) Where the motor vehicle was operated by a person who at the time of the offense was the owner thereof, satisfactory evidence that the registered owner or other person seeking to redeem the vehicle has a license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state.

1     3. If fifteen days have elapsed from the expiration of the term of 2 impoundment imposed by the sentencing court, and the motor vehicle has 3 not been released pursuant to subdivision two of this section, the local 4 authority shall make inquiry in the manner prescribed by the commission-
5 er as to the name and address of the owner and any lienholder and upon 6 receipt of such information shall notify the owner and the lienholder,
7 if any, at his or her last known address by certified mail, return 8 receipt requested, that if the vehicle is not retrieved pursuant to 9 subdivision two of this section within thirty days from the date the 10 notice is given, it will be forfeited. If the vehicle was registered in 11 New York state the last known address shall be that address on file with 12 the commissioner. If the vehicle was registered out-of-state or was not 13 registered, notification shall be made in the manner prescribed by the 14 commissioner.

15     4. A motor vehicle that has been impounded and not retrieved pursuant 16 to the foregoing provisions of this section shall be forfeited to the 17 local authority upon expiration of the period of notice set forth in 18 subdivision three of this section. A proceeding to decree such forfei-19 ture and to recover towing and storage costs, if any, to the extent such 20 costs exceed the fair market value of the vehicle, may be brought by the 21 local authority in the court in which the defendant was sentenced for 22 the crime of driving while ability impaired or driving while intoxicated
23 by petition for an order decreeing forfeiture of the motor vehicle
24 accompanied by an affidavit attesting to facts showing that forfeiture
25 is warranted. If the identity and address of the owner and/or lienholder 26 is known to the local authority, ten days notice shall be given to such 27 party, who shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard prior to 28 entry of an order decreeing forfeiture. Where the court is satisfied 29 that forfeiture of a motor vehicle is warranted in accordance with this 30 section, it shall enter an order decreeing the forfeiture of such vehi-31 cle. Provided, however, that the court at any time prior to entry of 32 such order may authorize release of the vehicle in accordance with 33 subdivision two of this section upon a showing of good cause for failure
34 to retrieve same prior to commencement of the proceeding to decree 35 forfeiture, but if the court orders release of the motor vehicle as 36 herein provided and the vehicle is not redeemed within ten days from the 37 date of such order, the vehicle shall be deemed to have been abandoned 38 and the court, upon application of the local authority, must enter an 39 order decreeing its forfeiture.

40     5. A motor vehicle forfeited in accordance with the provisions of this 41 section shall be and become the property of the local authority, subject 42 however to any lien that was recorded prior to the impoundment of the 43 vehicle.

44     6. For the purposes of this section, the term "local authority" means 45 the municipality in which the motor vehicle was seized; except that if 46 the motor vehicle was seized on property of the New York state thruway 47 authority or property under the jurisdiction of the office of parks,
48 recreation and historic preservation, the department of transportation,
49 or a public authority or commission, the term "local authority" means 50 such authority, office, department, or commission. A county may provide 51 by local law that the county may act as the agent for a local authority 52 under this section.

53     7. When a vehicle has been impounded pursuant to this section, the 54 local authority or any person having custody of the vehicle shall make 55 the vehicle available or grant access to it to any owner or any person 56 designated or authorized by such owner for the purpose of (a) taking

1 possession of any personal property found within the vehicle and (b)
2 obtaining proof of registration, financial security, title or documenta-
3 tion in support thereof.

4 8. Upon application by the defendant, the sentencing court may fashion 5 an alternative method of disabling and/or securing the car from use by 6 the defendant for the duration of the impoundment period.

8 ment pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punisha-9 ble by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one 10 thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a penitentiary or county jail

13 proceedings commenced on and after such date.
