AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to retaliation against other jurisdictions which discriminate against hiring New York state residents

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 13
2 to read as follows:

3 § 13. Provisions relating to retaliating against other jurisdictions
4 which discriminate against hiring New York state residents. 1. For the 5 purposes of this section:

6 a. "Discriminatory jurisdiction" shall mean any state that has laws
7 that discriminate against New York state residents by prohibiting public 8 employers in such state from employing out of state residents.

9 b. "Primary residence" shall mean where a person spends the majority 10 of his or her non-working time; and which is most clearly the center of 11 his or her domestic life; and which is designated as his or her legal 12 address and legal residence for voting.

13 c. "Public employers" shall mean the following employers:

14 (1) the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of this state;

15 (2) an authority, board, body, agency, commission, or instrumentality
16 of the state including any state college, university, or other higher 17 educational institution, and, to the extent consistent with law, any 18 interstate agency to which the state is a party;

19 (3) a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the 20 state or an authority, board, body, agency, district, commission, or 21 instrumentality of the county, municipality, or subdivision;

22 (4) a school district or an authority, board, body, agency, commis-
23 sion, or instrumentality of the district.

24 d. "Undue hardship" shall mean an accommodation which requires signif-
25 icant expense and difficulty to obtain, and places an unavoidable burden

1 on the health and wellbeing of the prospective employee and/or their 2 immediate family members.

3 2. The commission shall annually prepare a list of all discriminatory
4 jurisdictions. The commission shall add to or delete from said list any 5 jurisdiction upon changes in such jurisdiction's laws that deem a change
6 in designation. The commission shall deliver a copy of the list by the 7 end of each calendar year to all public employers in the state of New 8 York as defined in this section and detail the effective date of such 9 list.

10 3. Upon the effective date of a list of discriminatory jurisdictions, 11 a public employer shall not hire any person whose primary residence is 12 located in a discriminatory jurisdiction. However, such person shall 13 have one year from the date of hire to change his or her primary resi-
14 dence to a jurisdiction that is not deemed discriminatory by the commis-
15 sion. A person who fails to satisfy the requirements of this section 16 following the one year period from hire shall be deemed unfit to hold 17 such office, employment or position and such public employer shall 18 terminate the employment immediately. The public employer, upon receipt 19 of the list or updated list of all discriminatory jurisdictions, shall 20 revise all relevant hiring standards to account for such changes and 21 disseminate to all necessary authorities.

22 4. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who is 23 employed by a public employer in this state on the effective date of the 24 initial list and any subsequent updated list of discriminatory jurisdic-
25 tions by the commission and where such person's primary residence is 26 located in a discriminatory jurisdiction which was on the original list 27 or has been added and was not designated discriminatory on the list from 28 the previous year. The provisions of this section will continue to not 29 apply provided such person continues to hold employment by a public 30 employer in the state without a break in public service of greater than 31 thirty days.

32 5. The provisions of this section may be waived through an application 33 that is approved by the commission. The application must demonstrate 34 the undue hardship created by the provisions of this section and how a 35 waiver would alleviate such hardship. The application must include 36 supporting documentation detailing the undue hardship, provided, the 37 commission may in its discretion request additional information from the 38 person. An application shall be submitted in a manner prescribed by the 39 commission. A determination by the commission must be made in writing no 40 later than ninety days after it was received. The commission may extend 41 the period of review for an additional thirty days if it informs the 42 applicant in writing. If the application is denied, an appeal may be 43 granted at the discretion of the commission. An applicant that was 44 denied may reapply for a waiver no sooner than six months after such 45 denial. A waiver that is granted by the commission shall be valid for a 46 period of one year or until such applicant has been hired by a public 47 employer wherein he or she shall be considered not subject to the 48 provisions of this section as provided in subdivision four of this 49 section. A person may reapply for a waiver upon the expiration of a 50 previously granted waiver.

51 § 2. The civil service commission is authorized to promulgate rules 52 and regulations necessary for the implementation of the provisions of 53 this act on or before its effective date.

54 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
55 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
