- 2. For purposes of this section "intimate part" means the naked genitals, pubic area, anus or female nipple of the person.
- 2-a. For purposes of this section "disseminate" and "publish" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 250.40 of this title.
  - 3. This section shall not apply to the following:
  - (a) the reporting of unlawful conduct;
- (b) dissemination or publication of an intimate image made during lawful and common practices of law enforcement, legal proceedings or medical treatment;
- 10 (c) images involving voluntary exposure in a public or commercial setting;
  - (d) dissemination or publication of an intimate image made for a legitimate public purpose;
    - (e) providers of an interactive computer service for images provided by another person. For purposes of this subdivision, "interactive computer service" shall mean: any information service, system or access software provider that provides or enables computer access by multiple users to a computer server, including specifically a service or system that provides access to the internet and such systems operated or services offered by libraries or educational institutions.

Unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate image is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 4 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

26 The family court and the criminal courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction over any proceeding concerning acts which would constitute disorderly conduct,  $\underline{\text{unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate}}$ 27 28 image, harassment in the first degree, harassment in the second degree, 29 30 aggravated harassment in the second degree, sexual misconduct, forcible 31 touching, sexual abuse in the third degree, sexual abuse in the second 32 degree as set forth in subdivision one of section 130.60 of the penal 33 law, stalking in the first degree, stalking in the second degree, stalking in the third degree, stalking in the fourth degree, criminal 34 35 mischief, menacing in the second degree, menacing in the third degree, 36 reckless endangerment, strangulation in the first degree, strangulation 37 in the second degree, criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circu-38 lation, assault in the second degree, assault in the third degree, an 39 attempted assault, identity theft in the first degree, identity theft in the second degree, identity theft in the third degree, grand larceny in 40 41 the fourth degree, grand larceny in the third degree, coercion in the 42 second degree or coercion in the third degree as set forth in subdivisions one, two and three of section 135.60 of the penal law between 43 spouses or former spouses, or between parent and child or between 44 45 members of the same family or household except that if the respondent 46 would not be criminally responsible by reason of age pursuant to section 47 30.00 of the penal law, then the family court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over such proceeding. Notwithstanding a complainant's 48 election to proceed in family court, the criminal court shall not be 49 divested of jurisdiction to hear a family offense proceeding pursuant to 50 this section. For purposes of this section, "disorderly conduct" 51 includes disorderly conduct not in a public place. For purposes of this 52 section, "members of the same family or household" with respect to a 54 proceeding in the criminal courts shall mean the following:

§ 3. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 812 of the family court act, as amended by section 5 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

4 The family court and the criminal courts shall have concurrent juris-5 diction over any proceeding concerning acts which would constitute disorderly conduct, unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate 7 image, harassment in the first degree, harassment in the second degree, 8 aggravated harassment in the second degree, sexual misconduct, forcible 9 touching, sexual abuse in the third degree, sexual abuse in the second 10 degree as set forth in subdivision one of section 130.60 of the penal 11 law, stalking in the first degree, stalking in the second degree, stalking in the third degree, stalking in the fourth degree, criminal 12 mischief, menacing in the second degree, menacing in the third degree, 13 14 reckless endangerment, criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circu-15 lation, strangulation in the second degree, strangulation in the first 16 degree, assault in the second degree, assault in the third degree, an 17 attempted assault, identity theft in the first degree, identity theft in the second degree, identity theft in the third degree, grand larceny in 18 19 the fourth degree, grand larceny in the third degree, coercion in the 20 second degree or coercion in the third degree as set forth in subdivi-21 sions one, two and three of section 135.60 of the penal law between spouses or former spouses, or between parent and child or between 22 members of the same family or household except that if the respondent 23 would not be criminally responsible by reason of age pursuant to section 24 25 30.00 of the penal law, then the family court shall have exclusive 26 jurisdiction over such proceeding. Notwithstanding a complainant's 27 election to proceed in family court, the criminal court shall not be divested of jurisdiction to hear a family offense proceeding pursuant to 28 29 this section. In any proceeding pursuant to this article, a court shall 30 not deny an order of protection, or dismiss a petition, solely on the 31 basis that the acts or events alleged are not relatively contemporaneous 32 with the date of the petition, the conclusion of the fact-finding or the 33 conclusion of the dispositional hearing. For purposes of this article, 34 "disorderly conduct" includes disorderly conduct not in a public place. 35 For purposes of this article, "members of the same family or household" 36 shall mean the following: 37

 $\S$  4. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 52-b to read as follows:

§ 52-b. Private right of action for unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate image. 1. Any person depicted in a still or video image, regardless of whether or not the original still or video image was consensually obtained, shall have a cause of action against an individual who, for the purpose of harassing, annoying or alarming such person, disseminated or published, or threatened to disseminate or publish, such still or video image, where such image:

- a. was taken when such person had a reasonable expectation of privacy; and
- b. depicts (i) an unclothed or exposed intimate part of such person; or (ii) such person engaging in sexual conduct, as defined in subdivision ten of section 130.00 of the penal law, with another person; and
- c. was disseminated or published, or threatened to be disseminated or published, without the consent of such person.
- 2. In any action commenced pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the finder of fact, in its discretion, may award injunctive relief, punitive damages, compensatory damages and reasonable court costs and attorney's fees.
