IN ASSEMBLY

January 22, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. ROZIC, BLAKE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to enacting the "Place a child in every school seat act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Place a child in every school seat act".

§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 3205-a to read as follows:

§ 3205-a. "Place a child in every school seat act"; public awareness of public school attendance; incentives to improve attendance. 1. The department is hereby directed to establish a public awareness and education campaign that includes, but is not limited to, emphasizing the benefits of attending school and earning, at a minimum, a high school diploma, and the potential consequences related to dropping out of school. Such public awareness and education campaign shall be directed at minors whose attendance at school is required pursuant to section thirty-two hundred five of this part and at their parents or guardians and shall utilize a variety of media such as, but not limited to, television, billboards, radio, and internet.

2. The department is hereby directed to create an incentive program to improve student attendance required pursuant to section thirty-two hundred five of this part. Incentives shall be developed with the advice and consent of the board of regents as to an appropriate but motivational incentive that will appeal to students in all parts of the state and in all income brackets. The department is encouraged to develop incentives directed at students specifically so as to motivate excitement and enthusiasm for attendance. Such an incentive program and/or awards shall be based on a district's overall attendance or most improved attendance as a percentage of the student body from the previous year. Incentives may be awarded to more than one school district in each school year.

3. The department is directed to make a good faith effort to seek federal government and/or private resources to supplement appropriated funds to develop the programs created pursuant to subdivisions one and two of this section.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
