AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to prohibiting insurance companies from denying coverage for individuals that have taken or are currently taking pre-exposure prophylaxis or post-exposure prophylaxis

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 2617 to read as follows:

§ 2617. Discrimination based on previous or current use of pre-exposure prophylaxis and post-exposure prophylaxis. (a) No individual, insurer or entity shall solely because a person has used or is currently using pre-exposure prophylaxis for the prevention of HIV or post-exposure prophylaxis to prevent HIV infection:

(1) refuse to issue or renew, deny or cancel any insurance policy or contract;

(2) demand or require a greater premium or payment from any person;

(3) designate use of pre-exposure prophylaxis for the prevention of HIV or post-exposure prophylaxis to prevent HIV infection as a preexisting condition, for which coverage will be denied or reduced;

(4) fix any lower rate or discriminate in the fees or commission of agents or brokers for writing or renewing such a policy.

(b) The fact that a person is or has used pre-exposure prophylaxis for the prevention of HIV and post-exposure prophylaxis to prevent HIV infection is not a permitted underwriting criterion.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
