

STATE OF NEW YORK

2703

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 25, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the regulation of the use of informants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 60.77 to read as follows:

§ 60.77 Rules of evidence; use of confidential informants.

1. Whenever a prosecuting attorney plans to use an informant to testify against a defendant, the attorney for such defendant shall be supplied with:

a. the complete criminal record of the informant;

b. any testimony or information the informant has provided or has promised to provide for any legal action;

c. all statements made by the informant about the specific legal action in question; and

d. all promises, compromises, or protections offered by the prosecuting attorney to the informant in exchange for his or her testimony. This shall also include any information about crimes committed by the informant for which charges will not be brought in exchange for his or her testimony.

2. The attorney for the defendant shall be given the opportunity to depose the informant prior to entering into any plea negotiations or going to trial.

3. Upon the request of the attorney for the defendant, the judge shall grant a reliability hearing, which shall be used to determine the credibility of the informant's testimony. Both the prosecution and the attorney for the defendant shall be entitled to offer evidence relating to the informant's reliability. The judge, in his or her own discretion, shall weigh the evidence and determine if the informant is a reliable

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04674-01-9

1 witness. If the informant is found to be unreliable, he or she shall be
2 prohibited from testifying against the defendant.

3 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law relating to the plea
4 bargains, no prosecuting attorney shall offer a dismissal of or refuse
5 to bring charges for the crimes of murder, manslaughter, rape, or 6 kidnapping in exchange for the testimony of a person.

7 5. If a person has committed a crime that, if convicted, would result
8 in a conviction of a class A misdemeanor or any class of felony, law
9 enforcement officers or the prosecuting attorney must receive judicial 10 consent before using such charge as a plea offer in exchange for the 11 testimony of the person.

12 6. Commencing January first in the year following the effective date
13 of this section, and every January first thereafter, all law enforcement
14 personnel who use informants shall file a report with the department of 15 state. The report shall be available to public inspection and may be 16 made available on the department of state website or in other electronic 17 formats. The report shall include:

18 a. the exact number of informants created and sustained by each
19 department or office;

20 b. the number of occurrences when a suspect becomes an informant with-
21 out ever being officially charged with a crime;

22 c. the number of occurrences when a suspect has charges dropped after 23 agreeing to become an informant;

24 d. the specific offenses that have been dropped as the result of an
25 individual becoming an informant;

26 e. the number of arrests that are the direct or indirect result of the 27 use of an informant and the role played by the informant for each such 28 arrest;

29 f. the number of convictions that are the direct or indirect result of 30 the use of an informant and the role played by the informant for each 31 such conviction; and

32 g. the age, race, gender, and neighborhood of residence of each infor-
33 mant.

34 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of September next 35 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.