Introduced by M. of A. BICHOTTE, ORTIZ, D'URSO, RICHARDSON -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. WRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the elder law and the banking law, in relation to requiring financial planners working with the elderly to be certified financial planners

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new section 219-a to 2 read as follows:

3 § 219-a. Financial planning sales, products and services sold or 4 marketed to the elderly. 1. For the purposes of this section, the 5 following terms shall have the following meanings:

6 (a) The term "elderly person" shall have the same meaning ascribed in 7 section two hundred fourteen of this title.

8 (b) The term "financial planner" shall mean any individual, business 9 or entity that sells, promotes or holds themselves out to sell or 10 promote or provide investment planning, income tax planning, education 11 planning, retirement planning, estate planning, risk management, and any 12 other area with respect to the management of financial resources;
13 including but not limited to 401(k)s, Individual Retirement Accounts
14 (IRAs), Roth IRAs, SEP-IRAs, and IRA rollovers.

15 2. Financial planners who derive any income or business from elderly 16 persons who are residents of New York state shall be required to become 17 certified. Certification shall mean having fulfilled all educational, 18 ethical and certification exam requirements set forth by the Certified
19 Financial Planner Board of Standards, Incorporated or a nationally 20 recognized accreditation agency acceptable to the superintendent of 21 financial services.

22 § 2. The banking law is amended by adding a new article 12-F to read 23 as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
